ties that make up the northwest Kansas district. She is a seventh grader.

The other four students, Reed, Harris, Jenik and Wolff, are St. Francis junior high vocal students who participated in the 218-member honor choir. Selection for the honor choir is by teacher recommendation. Reed is an eighth grader while Harris, Jenik and Wolff are seventh graders.

Students in the band and choir began practice at 8:30 a.m. and presented a concert at Hays High School later that afternoon.

"The music at the concert was magnificent!" said Debbie Fiala, junior high band and vocal instructor. "This was a wonderful experience for these students."

Musician to play

The 14th annual Western Plains Music Festival will be held Nov. 12-13 at Dodge City Community College. High school musicians from western Kansas, the Oklahoma and Texas panhandles and southeastern Colorado, are invited to participate in the honor band and honor choir with selection based on director recommendation.

Logan Whitmore, junior, will be representing St. Francis playing trumpet in the honor band. He will travel to Dodge City on Nov. 12, where he will spend two days in rehearsals with other outstanding high school musicians. A public concert will be presented at the Dodge City Community College Little Theatre on Saturday afternoon.

Logan is a member of the St. Francis Community High School Band and advanced music class under the direction of Debbie Fiala. He also receives private instruction from Neal Russell, retired band director in Oberlin. This will be Logan's third year to participate in the Western Plains Music Festival.

Whitmore

THE GREAT CONTROVERSY BETWEEN GOOD & EVIL

Scripture portrays a cosmic battle between good and evil, God and Satan. Understanding this controversy, helps answer the question "Why did Jesus come to this planet?"

Mystery of mysteries, the conflict between good and evil began in heaven. How could sin possibly originate in a perfect environment?

Angels, beings of a higher order than humans (Ps. 8:5), were created to enjoy intimate fellowship with God (Rev. 1: 1; 3:5;5:11). Of superior strength, and obedient to God's Word (Ps. 103:20), they function as servants or "ministering spirits" (Heb. 1:14) It was through one of these angelic beings that sin was introduced to the universe.

Although sin's rise is inexplicable and unjustifiable, its roots can be traced to Lucifer's pride. Ezek 28:17. Lucifer refused to be content with the exalted position his Creator had given him. In selfishness he coveted equality with God Himself. Isa. 14: 12-14

From the fall of humanity in the Garden of Eden until the 2nd coming of Jesus, Satan will try to deceive mankind into believing that God is unfair and really not a loving God. But God is fair and loving. Jn. 3:16. Today the great controversy raging furiously around Christ's authority involves not only His law, but His Word- the Scriptures. Approaches to the interpretation of the Bible have been developed that allow little or no room for divine revelation. Scripture is treated as if it were not different from any other ancient document and analyzed with the same critical methodology. A growing number of Christians, including theologians, no longer view the Scriptures as the Word of God, the infallible revelation of His will. Consequently, they have come to question the Biblical view of the person of Jesus Christ.

The most crucial question is when Christ asked, "Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?" the disciples replied, "Some say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets" Matthew 16: 13,14. Jesus asked His twelve disciples, "But who do you say that I am?" and Simon Peter answered "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God". Peter got it right- Do we?

Today everyone faces the same question Christ asked His disciples. One's answer to this life-and-death question depends on one's faith in the testimony of God's Word. How do you answer this question? Please request your free book on the "The Great Controversy between God and Satan":
