Kansas Day activities planned

Kansas Day activities in Bird City are set for Saturday with registration starting at 10 a.m. at the Bird City Legion hall.

Elected officers make the plans for the Kansas Day activities. Local churches rotate responsibilities for kitchen duties and table decorations. The celebration begins with registration, followed by a potluck at noon.

Cheyenne County will continue its Kansas Day tradition celebrating the "Kansas Sesquicentennial." The St. Francis Singers and Swingin' Seniors will provide entertainment. William Keel, professor of German and chair of the department of Germanic Languages and Literatures at the University of Kansas, will speak on "The German Heritage of Kansas."

Not many communities in Kansas observe Kansas Day, so everyone is urged to come to Bird City this year and join the celebration of Kansas' 150th birthday.

Cheyenne County has celebrated Kansas Day since 1930. The Mother's Circle of the Bird City Methodist Church organized the first celebration, a "Kansas Day Picnic" which turned into an all day affair.

Again in 1931 the Bird City community celebrated Kansas Day with skits, dances, poems and songs. Year by year the Kansas Day celebration grew in popularity.

In 1935, a set of by-laws was accepted by the Kansas Day organization. The object was to promote and maintain the proper observance of Kansas Day in Cheyenne County.

On Jan. 29, 1958, a blizzard struck Cheyenne County. This is the only time residents did not gather for the Kansas Day celebration. In 1971 the observance was moved to the Bird City Legion hall. Kansas Day activities are still held there.

Note: Historical information was gathered from Cheyenne County History, Volume I, 1987. "Kansas Day Celebration" by Marsha Magley.

Haigler News

By Floy Fisher

Windy and warmer is the trend. Winter soon will end (hopefully). The deep snow has melted but Haigler keeps getting dusted with a little skiff about every night.

On Sunday after church, Dale and Dode Faylor drove to Yuma, Colo., to have dinner and some good fellowship with friends there.

On Thursday the 20th, Dale and Dode Faylor's son-in-law, Phil Hilger, left for Haiti with several other people on his third trip there to work on an orphanage. On his first trip there, the devastating earthquake hit that country. (Those of us who have seen pictures of the devastation in Haiti can visualize the great needs.)

Faylor's daughter, Sherri

Morabito, drove to Abilene, where she spent the night with her daughter, Mindee Reynolds and family. The next day she drove to Killeen, Texas, to the home of her other daughter, Shauna Boyd. Shauna's husband, Brent, has been sent to another state on business for the army. Shauna is having some physical problems so some tender, love and care (T.L.C.) from her mom is much needed and appreciated.

Lois Zuege went to her cousin, Evelyn Stover's 79th birthday celebration in Fort Collins then to Longmont to meet sister, Betsy Zimmerman at Frank Tiff's. She spent the day, and that night went to son Jeremy's to spend the night. During all this time the big snow storm convened. She came home on Tuesday and spent last week-end with her sister, Edith Roundtree of Benkelman, Neb., area and had Sunday lunch with Edith's daughter Evelyn Stamm. She came home from there on Monday.

From Thursday evening through Sunday, Floy Fisher kept her daughter's Chocolate Lab, Cocomo (Mo, for short) in her home. That was long enough to get attached to each other. Mo was not much excited about going back home on Sunday afternoon. Floy had been considering getting a pet for companionship, which is good, but now better appreciates her freedom.
