

Casey's Comments

By Casey McCormick

mccormickcasey@rocketmail.com
I've been tossing around some thoughts and Father's Day seemed like a good time to try to put them on paper.

The topic in my head is: "What does it take to be a man?"

When I was younger the answer seemed pretty obvious. A man was someone who was tough and could boss people around if needed. Also, you had to be old enough to grow a beard.

As with many things in life, the older I get, the more confusing the world around me becomes. Being strong and in control are some good qualities during times of conflict. But what about the every day, day-to-day moments that make up most of our lives?

So, as well as being the protector, a man has to be able to do more. A lot of it seems to be about just being there. Being there for whatever your wife and kids are doing.

It may not always be the most fun doing the things others want, but the neat part is you're with the ones you love.

I guess being a man has something to do with being involved and having a presence in the days of others.

And having a beard can be a nice bonus.

Obituary

Roy Walden Troutt Jr.

Aug. 24, 1944 - June 13, 2011

Roy W. Troutt was born on Aug. 24, 1944, in San Diego, Calif., to Roy Troutt Sr., and Vicky Runyan Troutt. He died on June 13, 2011, at the Colby Care Center in Colby, Kan.

Roy was a retired electrical engineer specializing in computer science. He was employed for 20 years as the senior engineer for Unisys Corporation at the San Diego, Calif., branch. Due to health reasons, Roy retired in 1993.

Roy was baptized on June 24, 1945, at St. Anne's Church, San Diego, Calif. He was confirmed in the Lutheran faith on Jan. 24, 1999, at St. John Lutheran Church, Bird City.

After graduating from San Diego State College in 1968, Roy joined the U.S. Navy and became an electrical warfare specialist. During his six years in the Navy, Roy saw duty on a destroyer in the gun line off the coast of Vietnam. A normal hitch in the Navy was four years but because of the Vietnam War and his hard-to-fill position, his tour was extended two years.

Roy and his shipmates also visited ports in Hong Kong, Philippine Islands, Hawaii, Japan, Okinawa, Pakistan, South Korea, Midway Islands and Wake Island.

As a child he also passed through the Panama Canal with his parents when Roy Sr. (a career Navy Chief Petty Officer) was being transferred to another duty station.

During his employment with Unisys Corporation, Roy traveled to many places in the United States representing his company. On one memorable trip he was sent to London, England.

Being very athletic, Roy played little league baseball and high school football and also played softball on his company team.

He enjoyed camping, fishing, backpacking and canoeing with his cousin Leo.

He was preceded in death by his father, Roy Troutt Sr.; mother, Vicky Runyan Troutt; grandparents, Frank and Irene Troutt, Grover and Maria Runyan; half brother, Richard Cuthbert; cousin, Robert Runyan; and aunt, Arline Mazon.

Funeral services were held at St. John Lutheran Church in Bird City, Kan.

Inurnment was in the Bird City Cemetery. There was a military graveside service conducted by the Navy Honor Guard.

Memorials may be made to the National Ataxia Foundation.

Book Review

The Brave

By Nicholas Evans

There's little love in eight-year-old Tom Bedford's life. His parents are old and remote, and the boarding school they've send him to bristles with bullies and sadistic staff. The only comfort he gets is from his fantasy world of cowboys and Indians. But when his sister, Diane, a rising star of stage and screen, falls in love with one of his idols, the suave TV cowboy Ray Montane, Tom's existence is transformed. They move to Hollywood and all his dreams seem to come true. Soon, however, the sinister side of Tinseltown casts its shadow and a shocking act violence changes their lives forever.

What happened all those years ago remains a secret that corrodes Tom's life and wrecks his marriage. Only when his estranged son, a US Marine, is charged with murder do the events resurface, forcing Tom confront his demons. As he struggles to save his son's life, he will learn the true meaning of bravery

Grain helps infants/toddlers

Tiny-k Infant and Toddler services is participating in a Bushels for Babies" campaign for harvest this year. The program allows farmers to donate grain to help better serve area families with infants or toddlers who have developmental delays by enhancing access to a variety of services including: vision, hearing, nutrition, speech and other developmental supports.

It is easy! Simply notify the grain merchandiser at settlement time that you want to donate "x" number of bushels to your local tiny-k network and the elevator operator will do the rest. Your tiny-k network is a not-for-profit organization committed to quality service for infants and toddlers with identified special needs.

Lutheran quilters give robes

Recently, the Peace Lutheran quilters made and donated 38 lap robes to residents at the Good Samaritan Village in St. Francis. Cinda Dankenbring, one of the Lutheran quilters, brought them to the Village on Sunday, May 22, and residents were able to choose one to keep.

The Peace Lutheran quilters meet one Wednesday a month to sew and tie quilts to send to Lutheran World Relief. Mrs. Dankenbring organizes the quilting sessions and nine women meet to piece and tie the quilts.

There are three women who sew the quilt tops at home, then bring them to the church. When the group meets, two women sew the quilt tops to the backs and four to five women do the tying.

The group will accept donations of fabrics, used blankets and sheets for their projects. Just drop them off at the church.
