

Many enjoy county fair

BUTCHEWING was working at healing the steer at the roping on Wednesday evening of the fair. Butch and Lyn Wiley won the belt buckles that evening.

GARIN COOPER and his dog did well at the 4-H dog show on Tuesday of the fair.

WHEN YOU ARE SHORT, the way to play the game is to get on the table! Taos Dale, above, left, was going to win the skeeball game at the carnival. His dad, Darren, stood behind him. Clockwise, the mud volleyball games lasted a good part of the afternoon on Saturday. The demolition derby always draws a big crowd in the grandstands as they watch the hard-hitting action. Look for the list of winners in the special section which will be inserted in The Herald on Aug. 25.

Herald staff photos by Tim Burr, Lezlie McCormick, Margaret Bucholtz and Karen Krien