Chorus will perform in school auditorium Oct. 30

Windsong Chorus will perform at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 30 at the St. Francis high school auditorium, 100 S. College St.

Windsong Chorus is a Sweet Adelines barbershop group which sings four-part harmony and rehearses weekly in Sterling, Colo. Colleen Gardner and Carol Ross have been members of this group for about 16 years. Neala Carmichael retired two years ago after directing the chorus for 30 years.

Mrs. Carmichael continues to support the group and encourages everyone to come enjoy the early Christmas show entitled "North Pole Nonsense." She says the story line follows elves from all over the world converging on the North Pole for training to become one of Santa's elves. The show appeals to all ages, young and old alike. Children especially will like it.

Chapter U of P.E.O. is sponsoring the concert.

P.E.O. was established in 1869, placing it among the oldest women's organizations in North America. Originally begun as a friendship society at Iowa Wesleyan College, Mount Pleasant, P.E.O. has evolved into one of the largest nonsectarian, community based organizations with nearly 6,000 chapters and 350,000 members. As a philanthropic organization, P.E.O. has six projects that offer financial support for women seeking an education. Local P.E.O. chapter fundraisers are one of the ways to support these projects.

Chapter U was organized in St. Francis 102 years ago, making it one of the oldest chapters in Kansas. Each year it awards a scholarship to a graduating Cheyenne County senior girl who is going to college.

Tickets will be sold at the door. Children 8 and younger will be admitted free when accompanied by an adult. Tickets to the Windsong Chorus concert are available from any P.E.O. member as well as Ross Manufacturing, Bankwest, First National Bank and Western State Bank.

KYLA BANDEL putts on the green during the regional golf tournament held on Monday.

Local golfer heads to state tournament

On Monday at the 3-2-1A Regional Golf tournament in Syracuse, Kyla Bandel shot a 99 in 18 holes. She had a tie score with Bri Barlow of Holcomb but lost in sudden death to come in sixth place out of 26 golfers.

Placing first was Madison Brown from Syracuse with a score of 84. Second place went to Katelyn Marlin, Sublette with a score of 89. Jazz Weiss, Goodland was third scoring 92; and fourth was Alia Nuebrandt, Syracuse, with a score of 95. Bandel has had a successful season, usually traveling with the Colby golf team, but after reaching the regional and state level, is now playing on her own for St. Francis.

She will advance to the state golf tournament on Oct. 17 in Emporia.

Kyla is a freshman at St. Francis Community High School. She is the daughter of and fourth was Alia Nuebrandt,
