Haigler News

Tumbleweed Festival was a grand day! The weather cooperated with a picture perfect autumn day. Haigler Elementary students had decorated many pumpkins for the festival. Garage sales had six sites and 10 families participating. Food, music, enterertainment, tumbleweeds, and tours of the completed Country Schoolhouse and Linda Miller of Arnett, Okla.; Museum and future Haigler Cornerstone Museum were enjoyed by all attending. The Spook Parade down Porter Avenue had costumed participants of all kinds and ages. Over 45 businesses and individuals from the tri-state area contributed prizes for the festival events. Through the generous donations of all who attended, $1,000 was raised for the Cornerstone Museum. Many thanks to everyone who participated. This year's

> The five children of Marvin and Harriet Carlock enjoyed being together again for the Haigler Fall Tumbleweed Festival weekend. The three Carlock sisters--Cheryl Raile of Burwell, Neb.; Sandy Magley of Bird City, Kan.; were guests of their brother Stan Carlock and wife LaNeta at the Haigler White House. Their brother Marv and wife MaryAnn of Laird, Colo. brought pizza and birthday cake to celebrate Cheryl's birthday on Friday evening. Everyone pitched in Thursday, Friday, and Saturday to help with the Tumbleweed Festival; and Sunday morning all enjoyed breakfast at the Haigler Country Cafe.

Garry's mother, Floy Fisher, joined a church group visiting the nursing home in Yuma on Saturday afternoon. There was a song service in which residents chose their favorite gospel song for all to sing, an interesting, short inspirational message with a story and a snack of home made cookies enjoyed while personally visiting with the individual residents who attended. The group devotes a Saturday afternoon each month for this activity.

A big, beautiful, fat raccoon visited Floy's back yard Monday morning, checking out things under the dining room window. If he had known he could have found a feast of kitty food up a few steps on the deck. Obviously he has been finding plenty to eat elsewhere. It must be the culprit that has been digging up kitchen trash that has been buried in the garden area.
