Danielle (Chinn) Gardner, wife of Justin Gardner, is also a cousin. Danielle and Justin, along with their son, Gus, recently moved to Selbyville, Mo. "Our plans are to reunite with lost relatives and possibly find more family," Mr. Fry said.

It turned out that Danielle's father is a cousins of Dave's.

David Fry is the son of Darlene (Honsicker-Fry) Ragan and Alfred Eugene (Chinn) Fry. Alfred E. Chinn was born to Herman and Bertha Chinn. Herman died during the flu epidemic in 1917, when Alfred (David's father) was an infant. Bertha later married Truman Fry, raising Alfred as his own son.

When Alfred was about 17 years old, he asked Truman if he could take the "Fry" name. Truman, a good father, was delighted to know that Alfred wanted to take his name.

The Frys have enjoyed the information D.J. had been digging up, noting that it is, indeed, a small world!

McDonald - Bird City Red Hat Mamas' luncheon

Honking geese on the lake and golfers on the golf course set the scene for McDonald and Bird City Red Hat Mamas' Feb. 21 luncheon held at Atwood Country Club.

Tables were glamorously decorated by the Red Hat Mamas' February birthday members. The club house manager Bonnie and her staff prepared and served a melt-in-your-mouth roast beef meal with all the trimmings. They then wowed us with brownie a la mode.

Beverly Higgins chaired a short meeting. Peels of laughter was provided by Red Hat Mamas' humorist Phyllis Wingfield and via DVD comedian Anita Renfroe.

In attendance were: Marlene Young, Phyllis Wingfield, LaVina Waters, Joan Tongish, Connie Rooney, Lois Morelock, Carol Mears, Betty Lewis, Beverly Higgins, Vernetta Haack, Bethel Goltl, Linda Carroll, Bonnie Burr, Florence Antholz, Anna Antholz and Edna Roesener.
