

Byron and Karen Moberly had a colorful train with their grandchildren aboard as they made their way down Main Street during the fair parade on Saturday.

More photos from the county fair

HARVEY FORSYTHE, top left, took his turn frying funnel cakes in the United Methodist Church Funnel Cake building on the fairgrounds. The funnel cakes are an all-time favorite; clockwise: Isaac Hathaway had his steer under control during the 4-H show; Emily Elfers sheared her lamb so it would be ready to show the next morning; Robert Havel talked to the judge about the cake he was entering in the 4-H foods division.

Look for the After-Fair Special Section on Aug. 23

Herald staff photos by Tim Burr, Nathan Fiala and Karen Krien