Indians display skills at open house on Friday

The St. Francis high school football and volleyball teams hosted an open house for the community to preview the upcoming fall sports season on Friday, Aug. 24 in the high school gym. Carl Werner, new athletic director and previous superintendent, started the open house by introducing the head coaches and telling the crowd he would be taking over Indian News again.

Talley Morrow, head volleyball coach, talked a little bit about plans for the upcoming season and introduced her squad, as well as the junior high volleyball players.

Kyle Buffington, new head football coach, came up and before introducing this year's team, thanked teacher and former football coach Steve Jenkins for his years of service and continuing the St. Francis football tradition of hard work and dedication. He announced the team captains at the time, who are Zach Gienger, Mikey Leibbrandt, Scott Warren and Kyler Zwegardt. They were chosen based on summer participation in the weight room, along with community service.

The football team went to Greene Field for their scrimmage, while the volleyball team had theirs in the gym.

NEW COACH Seth Swihart talks with student-athletes as they warm up at last Friday's open house scrimmage.
