Craft fair set for Saturday

For the past 36 years many of the area's residents have started their holiday shopping at the Benkelman Craft Fair. This year will be no different as the craft fair is slated to take place on Saturday from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. mountain time at the Benkelman Elementary School. Everyone is urged to come do some shopping, enjoy some lunch and be eligible for many door prizes.

There is a fair amount of history behind the Benkelman Craft Fair. The Gabby Gals Extension Club initiated hosting the event in 1975. In 1986, a group of Benkelman ladies took over the reins on hosting the craft fair. Those reins have been passed on to the PinC Ladies of Benkelman.

The event has taken place in different venues as well. In the early years, it was held at the American Legion Hall, followed by St. Joseph's Catholic Church basement and has found its home at the Benkelman Elementary School for the last 27 years.

As of now, there are over 30 vendors slated to attend this event. With so many vendors, there will be countless items to choose from. The PinC Ladies are certain that there will be something for everyone!

Some of the items include candles, baked goods, glass work, personal care items, personal and wardrobe accessories, leather merchandise, canned goods, crocheted crafts, wooden creations, scrapbooking items, handbags and storage bags and many, many more!

Walk/run planned during health fair

In conjunction with the Cheyenne County Hospital Health Fair, the St. Francis United Methodist Church will sponsor a 5K run and a 2-mile walk at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 17. The race will begin and end at the St. Francis high school on College Street.

Medals will be awarded for the first three places in each age category for the run. There will not be medals for the walk.

Each participant will receive a T-shirt. There will be refreshments as well as drawings for door prizes. The top two door prizes will be a turkey and a ham.

The run is being held as a reminder for people to care about their health even during the holidays and to take time to exercise on a regular basis. Regular checkups, good eating and sleeping habits, and exercise are vital for good health.

If anyone is interested in registering or volunteering to help with the race, call Warren Cico at 772-7098 or stop by the St. Francis United Methodist Church Education building on Webster Street.

Each participant will receive a T-shirt. There will be refreshments as well as drawings for door prizes. The top two door prizes will be a turkey and a ham.
