Students honored at scholars dinner

A total of 42 seniors from high schools in Cheyenne, Decatur, Gove, Logan, Rawlins, Sheridan, Sherman, Thomas and Wallace counties will be recognized April 3 for their academic achievements and named Kansas Honor Scholars at a 7 p.m. dinner and program at the Elk's Lodge, 1523 Arcade Street, Goodland.

Students from Cheylin High School include Stephanie Busse, Bird City, a senior and Kenan Reeh, McDonald, also a senior.

St. Francis Community High School seniors recognized will be Zach Gienger, Clarice Neitzel and Allyson Northrup.

During the ceremony, each student will receive a Webster's New College Dictionary presented by Heath Peterson, assistant vice president of alumni programs for the Kansas University Alumni Association.

Lisa Pinamonti Kress, director of admissions for the University of Kansas, will speak to the students and their parents and guests.

Honored students will be guests of the alumni association and university's endowment; parents and area alumni are welcome to attend at a cost of $15 each.

Community volunteers collect reservations, coordinate details and serve as local contacts for the event. Coordinators for Cheyenne County are Mike and Brenda Day, St. Francis. Charles and Connie Peckham, Atwood, are the Rawlins County coordinators.

The Kansas Honors Program is made possible by university's endowment and proceeds from the Jayhawk license plate program.
