Thank you

Thank you for the many thoughtful remembrances after my surgery. A special thanks to the caregivers, both in Wray and St. Francis. Their patience was appreciated as is that of the therapist these days. Bonnie Burr

The family of Esther Schlichenmayer is grateful for every act of kindness shown to her. Thank you to the entire staff of the Good Samaritan Home, Cheyenne County Hospital Home Health Care and John Knodel. Dr. Miller for her honest and kind words at a difficult time. We truly appreciated all the food, flowers, cards, prayers and the generous memorials for the quilting ladies. Thanks Pastor Timothy and Immanuel Lutheran ladies for dinner. God bless each of you. Doug and Karen Flemming

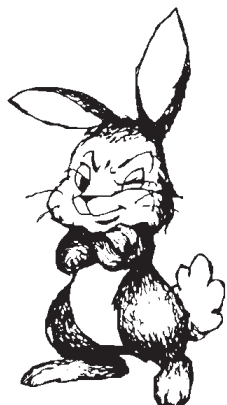

Thanks for the cards, calls, and prayers given in my behalf during my recent illness. I so appreciated the excellent care by Dr. Miller, Dr. Allard and by the whole staff at the hospital. Thanks very much to all of you! Vermetta Haack

Things aren't too hard to bear when in a community like ours, surrounding towns across many miles, states and countries. Dear ones are united in prayer and standing firm in believing for one's health to be completely restored! Just can't thank you enough for everyone involved! You know who you are! Your hearts full of caring, giving ways and sense of urgency! Thank you my dearest brother Lavern Young for pulling thru, as you give the glory to Jesus Christ for your complete healing! God bless you all richly. Your family, Marsha, Janet, Randy, David and LaVon's children

Thanks to all who made my 90th birthday such a memorable event for me. Whether a card, attendance or verbal acknowledgment, I do appreciate it. This area has the greatest people on earth. Bob Brubaker

Willy Martinez would like to thank the Methodist Church and all those who generously helped finance the emergency trip to California for the funeral and all the prayers and support.
