The St. Francis Indians and Lady Indians played the Tribune (Greeley County) Jackrabbits on Friday, Feb. 21 here in St. Francis. The basketball gods were smiling on the Lady Indians and Indians as both teams turned in excellent performances and defeated the Jackrabbits in classic style.

It was also Senior Night, with senior players Tony Sipsey, Jacob Baxter, Mason Schiltz, Wyatt Landenberger and Lenny Olivares honored along with their parents.

In a special presentation, Superintendent Rob Schiltz read a proclamation from the Kansas State High School Athletic Association honoring Rueben Burr and Vickie Cress for their years of service. They were each presented with a plaque by Athletic Director Carl Werner.

Lady Indians

In first quarter action, the Lady Indians came out playing aggressively. They were blocking out the Lady Jackrabbits on the defensive boards, turing their missing shots into fast break opportunities, and turning their own missed shots into 2 and 3 chance tries, which they were able to convert. Sainty was up 15-3 at the end of the quarter.

St. Francis continued the aggressive pressure defense in the second quarter. This forced Tribune into many turnovers, which were converted by the Lady Indians in to easy baskets. St. Francis continued to pull away 26-10 at the half.

The Lady Indians continued to play aggressively in the third quarter, out hustling the Lady Jackrabbits on almost every play. The Lady Indians play on the defensive boards was forcing Tribune to throw up bricks from the outside, which the Lady Indians easily grabbed and took back for scoring chances. St. Francis continued to pull away, and led 39-12 late in the third period. As the period came to a close, the Lady Indians were dominating 41-14.

Both teams continued to battle, but the Lady Indians had the victory in hand. In a very well played game, St. Francis soundly defeated Tribune, 51-23.

Indians scoring: Kyla Bandel, 23 points; Kylie Sherlock, 8 points; Valerie Wurm, 7 points; Kayla Reed, 5 points; Emily Elfers, 5 points; Journey Lee, 3 points.

"We played a great game, again playing consistently throughout the game," said Coach Susan Dinkel. "I was pleased with their efforts, and that those who played a lot all scored. When many girls score, it certainly helps with our confidence! We were down another player, with Justice being sick, but we came together and some players really stepped up. It was a fun game."

Indians

The Indians came out aggressive and strong through most of the first half. The Indians were aggressive on the defensive boards, and played hard inside. The Jackrabbits missed a lot of easy layups, which St. Francis turned into scores at the other end. The Indians were up 17-6 with a couple of minutes left in the first quarter. Tribune came back with a mini run, and cut the Indians lead to 19-13 at the end of the quarter.

The Indians game totally fell apart as the second quarter. All the things that the Indians were doing right in the first quarter, they were doing wrong in the second. Cold shooting, bad passing, and St. Francis lost control of both offensive and defensive boards. The Jackrabbits stormed back, tying the score at 22 with 3 minutes left. The Indians were being outplayed, and now trailed 33-25 at the half.

Junior varsity competes

Both teams came out battling in the third quarter. St. Francis began to make a comeback against a stubborn Jackrabbit's defense. As the Indians worked hard to catch up, the Jackrabbits worked just as hard to hold on to their slim lead. Both teams hit key shots throughout the period. As the quarter came to a close, Tribune had a slim 2 point lead, 51-48.

In the fourth quarter, the Jackrabbits got in to foul trouble early in the quarter. The Indians could not take advantage of the one and one chances at the free throw line. The game stayed tight, with both teams continuing to battle. The Jackrabbits were up 58-55 with 1:40 left in the game, when Mason Schiltz buried a 3 pointer to tie the game. Tribune went into a stall in the final minute, but missed on a 3 point attempt. St. Francis rebounded, and missed on their final shot attempt. With the crowd on it's feet, the regulation time ended with both teams tied at 58.

Both teams battled in the 4 minute over time period, with foul shooting being the decisive factor. The Indians took advantage of the Jackrabbits foul trouble, along with pinpoint shooting, to hold a slim lead of 68-64 with 35 seconds left. The Jackrabbits had a couple of miscues on offense, and were unable to convert any more three point shots. The Indians were able to make several one on one free throw attempts to ice the game, and came away with a 72-66 hard fought victory.

Indians scoring: Mason Schiltz, 26 points; Wyatt Landenberger, 24 points; Cade Bracelin, 16 points; Taylor Rogers, 4 points; Jacob Baxter, 2 points.

The next game for the Lady Indians and Indians will be against the Sharon Springs Wildcats on Tuesday, Feb. 25. This will be their final regular season game. The Sub state Tournament will begin next on Monday, March 3.

Seeding and brackets will not be announced until Wednesday morning, Feb. 26.
