Lawn Ridge 4-H Club

The regular meeting of the Lawn Ridge 4-H Club met at the clubhouse on April 4, Vice President Valerie Wurm called the meeting to order. The flag salute was led by Echoe Lennox. Gavin Lennox led the club in singing Row row row your boat. Roll call was answered by 6 members and leader. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Treasurer's report was given. Carol Redding congratulated the club for receiving the Blume Memorial Award. Club leader, Lynn Laten reminded members that May 1 is the add/drop date for projects, small animal weigh-in will be May 7 and there will be NO pigs weighed in this year. Under old business, the club decided on a date to deliver cookies to the premium sale buyers. In new business, it was moved and seconded to send flowers to Bailey Merklin.

Jylian Laten gave a project talk on her archery project. There was no demonstration that night. The club then played four corners for recreation. Announcements were read by Valerie, 4-H pledge was led by Katie Wurm. Meeting was adjourned. Refreshments were served by the Lennox family.

Woman sentenced to 14 years in prison

A Cheyenne County woman was sentenced Monday to more than 14 years in prison after pleading guilty to second-degree murder, Kansas Attorney General Derek Schmidt said.

Leeanna Windell, 44, Bird City, was sentenced to 176 months in the Kansas Department of Corrections by Judge Scott Showalter in Cheyenne County District Court. Windell pleaded guilty in April to one count of intentional murder in the second degree for the April 2013 death of Brad Figgins. The case was investigated by the St. Francis Police Department, Cheyenne County Sheriff's Office and Kansas Bureau of Investigation. Assistant Attorneys General Nicole Romine and Jessica Domme prosecuted the case. Cheyenne County Attorney Karan Thadani assisted with the prosecution.

More detailed accounting of the sentencing hearing will be printed in next weeks issues of the Herald and Times.
