Judges have good comments Monday

By Karen Krien

The judges of the 4-H clothing construction and fashion revue had nothing but good comments while judging the items on Monday.

"The judges say they love to come to Cheyenne County but it is difficult to select a winner," said Susan Knodel, 4-H coordinator.

At the Style Revue on Monday evening, it was quite evident why Cheyenne County 4-H'ers are known for their outstanding fashion revue projects. Master of ceremonies Abby Burr and Crystal Murray announced the participants and gave a brief description of their outfits. Cheyenne County Junior Miss Jennifer Weems handed out the trophies, ribbons and bouquets.

Winners of the Clothing Construction division (how the garment was made) were: Andrea Knodel, senior champion; Samantha Marin, senior reserve champion; Katelyn Jones, junior champion; and Heidi Yonkey, junior reserve champion.

Winners of the Fashion Revue division were:

Knitting construction (how the

Buymanship and strategy (purchased garments): Keegan Sherlock, boys junior champion; Corbin Sherlock, boys junior reserve champion.

Life skill judging was held earlier in the day. Top placers in this event were: Jody Gienger, senior high points; and Sydney Busse, junior high points.

Others participating in the Style Revue were: Alyson Marin, Kaitlin Marin, Megan Ford, Travis Havel, Scott Ford, Brooks Hobrock, Chance Hobrock, Caitlin Northrup, Kaycee Williams, Courtney Douthit, Amy Hilt, Jamie Pevler, Joni Pevler, Candice Wiese, Kim Voeller, Alecia Zimbelman, Ana Douthit, Erica Douthit, Megan Ford, Katora Sherlock, Julie Voeller, Emily Walz and Dennon Zimbelman.

Kamla reunion

Kamla reunion will be held Aug. 4 at Riverside Recreation. Friends are welcome to call between 2 and 4 p.m.

Meetings continue

Bethany Bartlett, coordinator of the "Pray for Rain" meetings reported that the meetings will continue until it rains a measurable amount. Individuals are meeting each evening at 8 a.m. at the band shell in Sawhill Park, St. Francis. There are no denominational preferences — just sincere people interested in praying for rain.

Zion Mission Festival

The Zion Mission Festival will begin with a 6 p.m. mountain daylight time Family Nite Potluck on Saturday at Haigler. Jacob D. Samler, M.D. (Otto Samler's brother) of Bakersfield, Calif., will be showing slides of "Where People Pray" and some of "St. Paul's Places" and "Religious Places in Turkey." There'll be plenty of time for questions afterwards. Pastor Chris Farmers said bring your hunger for great food and religious curiosity.

Sunday morning at 8 mountain daylight time the Zion Mission Festival continues with Holy Worship and Dr. Samler preaching on "Why I Believe? and Why Tell Others?" The service will also include the baptism of Jozie Christine Schilke, daughter of Michelle and Nick, following the sermon. Refreshments will follow.

An offering will be taken at both Mission Festival events and will go to the Nebraska Synod's Companion Synod of Argentina which is in dire need of prayers and monetary gifts.

Everyone is welcome to come and hear retired psychiatrist Jacob D. Samler, M.D.!
