Farm Bureau holds annual meeting

By Karen Krien
The annual Cheyenne County Farm Bureau meeting was held in St. Francis on Aug. 28 with members enjoying a meal of baked steak.
Shawn Blanka, president, led the meeting and several of the Kansas Farm Bureau members reported on issues and events during the year and future plans. Renee Braun, the county agency manager, reported that she will be leaving in the near future and Connie Holzwarth would be taking her place. Other changes included Marla Rice, the county insurance secretary will be assuming part of the duties of Valerie Kaup who has been an area coordinator. Mrs. Rice will now be the county insurance secretary and coordinator. Ms. Kaup will be the Sherman County coordinator and insurance secretary.
Jeanne Dunn represented Farm Bureau at the "Idea Exchange" conference and Cheyenne County was a winner. The booth had the theme, "Conservation - Whose Responsibility Is It?" Margo Douthit attended Farm Bureau's Leadership Camp and gave a brief review of the highlights.
Honored this year as the Cheyenne County Farm Family was the Roger Zweygardt family. The Steve Busse family received the Natural Resource Award.
Elected for a two-year term on the county board were George Ballinger, John Finley and Shawn Blanka. Mrs. Dunn was appointed as the women's chairman. Kansas Farm Bureau state annual meeting delegates will be Mrs. Dunn, Mr. Blanka and Mr. Finley.
The speaker for the evening was Mike Irvin who is the legal defense attorney for Farm Bureau and its members and a representative of Heritage

Douthit

Educational Legal Program (HELP). Mr. Irvin has been in law for 13 years and joined the Kansas organization one year ago.
He talked about farming being different today with government intervention, urban spread and environment issues. Today, there is the new farm bill, Kansas Department of Health and Environment issues, the Clean Water Act and people fighting for endangered species, all of which has an effect on the farmer and farming communities. His job is to help members fight issues. Where a single farmer might not have much influence, he, with Farm Bureau behind him, will have a better chance.

Boy Scouting is fun at every turn

Cub Scout Pack 120 and Boy Scout Troop 120 will be hosting a round-up, where boys and their parents can find out more about Scouting. The round-up will be held at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 5 at the grade school cafeteria. All boys in grades first through 12 and their parents are encouraged to attend.

The Scouts is chartered by the St. Francis United Methodist Church. Parents and their sons are urged to become a part of one of America's leading values-driven organizations.

"Scouting is a valuable resource that can help families accomplish worthy goals while building and strengthening relationships within the family," said Jerry Whitmore, Cubmaster/Scoutmaster.

Scouting combines fun with educational activities and lifelong values. It also helps parents to help their boys strengthen character, develop good citizenship, and enhance both mental and physical fitness. In addition, the program provides boys with positive peer groups and tools to shape their future.

In Scouting, boys learn ideals like honesty, bravery and respect. These values help boys make constructive decisions throughout their lifetimes, and give them the confidence they need to grow and develop. According to a recent study conducted by Louis Harris and Associates, "Character may be defined as the 'willingness to do what is right, regardless of circumstances.' Cub Scouting teaches boys what is right, in part by encouraging them to reflect on lessons learned through Scouting activities".

For more information please contact Cubmaster/Scoutmaster Whitmore at 785-332-2406.

Boys will find that Scouting is fun at every turn!

Show support; wear red, white & blue

Sept. 11, is soon approaching. On that day, residents are asked to wear red, white and blue to work or school to show their support for those who lost their lives on Sept. 11, 2001, and to honor the heroes who worked to save them and the families left behind.
At noon (central daylight time in this area) on Sept. 11, no matter where you are or what you are doing, stop, put your hand on your heart, and say the Pledge of Allegiance out loud or to yourself and say a prayer for this nation.
If everyone does this together in every time zone around the world, there will have a powerful chain of thoughts.
