

SHEA HILLENBRAND, Boston Red Sox player will be in St. Francis to hold a clinic for area youth.

Sox player to hold clinic in St. Francis

By Karen Krien

Shea Hillenbrand, third base player and outstanding batter for the Red Sox baseball team will be in St. Francis on Oct. 5 to hold a youth baseball clinic at the St. Francis ballfield. The clinic will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. and is open to youth, third through 12th grade.

Spectators are welcome and a donation will be accepted but not required. Mr. Hillenbrand will also take time to sign autographs that afternoon.

There will be a charge for the clinic and the money will be used for improvements at the ballfield. For more information, check the ad on the classified page or call Jolene Spike, rec director, at 785-332-3359.

Mr. Hillenbrand, the grandson of Albert and Bessie Burr (actually, he is married to their granddaughter Jessica but he claims the Burrs are just like grandparents), was in St. Francis a year ago and talked to students in an all-school assembly. Several days later, he signed autographs and met with people at the senior center.
