

On the Plains

Idalia News

Angie Toledo and Chelsea of Parker were Sunday overnight guests of her parents, Larry and Janie Beckman, Chelsea remained for the week to visit her grandparents.

Idalia Cub Scouts

Idalia Cub Scouts Troop 337 met on Wednesday evening at the Homestead Memorial building for a summer awards night. Troop leaders Cyndie Weyerman, Nancy Helling and Teresa Allen presented the scouts with many awards they earned this summer. Cub Scouts this year are Ashton Weyerman, Riley Shaffer, Brenden Dutton, Will Helling, Tyler Wade, Sterling McDonald, Shawn Pratt, Shawn Elliott, Matthew Paul, Zeth Wolfe, Jordan Lippert and Wayne Lippert. The boys are currently selling popcorn as a fundraiser for our troop.

Birthday's

Delmar and Roberta Moellenberg attended the dinner and birthday party in honor of their granddaughter Alaina Akey's fourth birthday at her parents home, Cody and Joy Akey and Railyn of Wray Sunday. Other attending were Dave and Jo Stults and Roxanne and Dalton Akey all of Greeley. A lady bug birthday cake and ice cream was served in the afternoon.

Tim and Kim Hall spent the weekend visiting Mindy and John Nasser helping their son Huster Nasser celebrate his third birthday with other relatives attending.

Idalia Baptist Church News

Idalia Baptist Church congregation and Pastor Fore invites you to come join them. Worship service at 8:45 a.m. Sunday evening Bible study is at 4 p.m. Thursday evening Bible study is at 6 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend. Gary Fore and oldest daughter, Ellen enjoyed a trip to China for three weeks and returned home Saturday for services Sunday.

Funeral

Margaret Walters, wife of Frankie Walters died Tuesday. Services was held at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Burlington, Monday, Sept. 23 at 10:30 a.m. Memorial gifts will go to Home Health Care of Kit Carson Memorial Hospital in Burlington.

Students Elected at Chapter Meeting

Eighteen members were present at the Idalia Future Business Leaders of America meeting on September 12. Officers were elected and are president, Jackie Doddridge; president-elect, Candice Walkinshaw; secretary/treasurer, Chris Devlin; reporter, Jackie Reeves; parliamentarian, Neil Hutton and student council representative, Ryan Cure.

This chapter will continue with it's Halloween canned food drive this year. Also as a fundraiser, members have decided to take cheesecake orders at the turkey shoot in November. The fall leadership conference will be held October 8 at Northeastern Junior College in Sterling.

St. John United Church of Christ News

St. John United Church of Christ invites everyone to come join them. Sunday school is at 10 a.m. Worship service is at 11 a.m. The Sunday school had their drawing Sunday morning for new grandchildren with a number drawing and the children had to find their new grandparents. Then they enjoyed a party, songs and crafts which they enjoyed and getting acquainted.

Bill Carpenter Sr. and Renee Carpenter sang a song "Jesus Hold my Hand" accompanied by Betty J. Moellenberg.

Sept. 28: North East Association meeting in Greeley, please see Cheryl Moellenberg for details.

Oct. 3, 1:30 p.m.: Women of Hope Church will be holding guest day for our women. Please R.S.V.P. to Joyce Helling by Sept. 28.

Family Community Education Club News

Bicentennial Family Community Education Club of Idalia met September 19 at St. John United Church of Christ fellowship hall with eleven members attending. The program was on quilts with three members bringing quilts and displaying them. Roll call was "Youth Favorite Quilt."

Sheryl Wudtke opened the business meeting with all repeating the club creed. Roberta Moellenberg, secretary read the minutes. Tina Schiel, treasurer reported on the Willard North and Roy Clark sales and Beecher Island breakfast that was served. Kathy Fonte gave a report on style review at Yuma County Fair and showed the pretty cloth angel she gave to each of the girls. We received eight thank yous from Joy Akey and Elden Fisher, agent, for participating in the fair. Michelle Shaffer for Joyce Helling recommendation for young homemaker award. Amber Rock for the beautiful Crystal Try Fountain for her art work. Shirley Statius for the Marie Pinchard Flower arrangement that won best of show and the Crystal Tray, she invited us to come see her rose garden.

The District 1 meeting on October 23 in Fort Morgan was discussed and ideas for wreath that was received to take for silent auction. The theme is "Love Makes the World Go Around."

Joyce Helling and Rose Mary Shanks were hostesses.

Larry and Janie Beckman attended the wedding at Grand Lake, of her nephew, John Kramtz Saturday. Enroute home visited their daughter, Amber Beckman Sunday at Fort Collins.

Marcy Beckman, Tyler and Kristen of Fort Lupton spent Monday through Friday visiting Larry and Janie Beckman.

Clifford and Rulen Like spent five hours Friday at Kit Carson Memorial Hospital in Burlington for Rulen's tests with the specialist.

Dean and Sharon Bond of Kiowa, were weekend guests of their daughter and husband, Barry and Terry Henrickson.

Judy Rusher of Ordway visited her daughter, Amy Rusher and her parents, Junior and Jerry Weisshaar and they enjoyed dinner at Prairie Vista Restaurant and visited others.

Mike Beecham and son, Joshua of Pueblo West arrived Sunday and enjoyed dinner together with Harlan Boden at Prairie Vista Restaurant and visiting and will be guests of Harlan for a few days and attended the funeral of Galen Lengel. Also visited Shirley Boden at Hillcrest Care Center in Wray.

Mrs. Teresa Schaal and her mother, Jean Brenner attended St. John United Church of Christ worship service Sunday morning where daughter, Sharilyn Mansfield played the organ and they all enjoyed dinner at Prairie Vista Restaurant and visiting with friends.

Kitty Jacobs and Geneva North both of Wray attended St. John United Church of Christ Sunday morning and enjoyed dinner at Prairie Vista Restaurant and visiting friends.

Darby Shanks took her grandmother, Elsie Shanks to St. John United Church of Christ Sunday and they attended Sunday school party with cake, coffee and kool-aid served by superintendent Judy Langendoerfer and Cynthia Paul, assistant superintendent and they drew for new grandparents for the year and sang songs and made picture frames. They enjoyed dinner at Prairie Vista Restaurant and Alex Weyerman insisted they eat dinner with her and family as she was Elsie's new granddaughter, and visited.

Bill and Peggy Carpenter spent the weekend camping at Beecher Island with friends.

Matthew and Jonathan Paul were Monday overnight guests of their grandparents (her parents) in Denver and they brought them home Tuesday and spent a couple days while Howard and Cynthia Paul attended meetings.

Desiree Jimmis, student of Northern Junior College of Sterling and friend were Saturday afternoon visitors of her grandmother, Evelyn Flick.

Nancy and Stephanie Helling, Joyce Helling, Roberta Helling of Wray, Lucille Helling and Jerry Crites took Leona Helling to Burlington Country Club September 19 in honor of Leona's birthday.

Ralph Datema was a Saturday overnight guest of his daughter in Denver and they attended church Saturday night. Julie accompanied him to Idalia where she attended Sunday school and worship service and visiting. She took

By Elsie Shanks

ing, personnel and resources. As a result of this meeting plans are underway for Kristi and Betty to go to Vermont next spring to work with a group in developing a working farm and greenhouse facility. They also met with Carla Fontaine, a member of the Harvard Evaluation Team which documents successful projects completed through the rural challenge program. This team, originally headed by Vito Perrone, a well known Harvard educator and author, evaluates the effectiveness of education of taught in rural schools. Idalia students have worked with this team in presenting documentation of successful programs in Idalia school, including the Artist in Residence program, the 'historic' melodrama and the student presentations in several states. During their week in the Boston area, Kristi and Betty visited many of the historical sites of early America, including Bunker Hill, Provincetown where the pilgrims landed, U.S.S Constitution and the site of the Boston Tea Party

Haigler News

70th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bosley of Hastings were happy to receive cards from their many friends on their 70th wedding anniversary according to a letter received from them.

Mr. Bosley is 93 years old and does a wonderful job of typing letters. He jokes about his typing not being as accurate as it was when he taught school. Many can attest to that; his teaching demanded the best from his students.

The Bosleys have attended school reunions of former student who are now in their 80s. They lived in Haigler from 1938 to 1942.

Rainbow unit

Virginia Harford hosted the first fall meeting of Rainbow Family and Community Education Club on Sept. 19. All members were present. Virginia called the meeting to order at 1:30 with the reading of the Creed. Melba Harford, reading leader, read two interesting poems. One of them Dust If You Must fit the idea Lillian Mahon, health leaders, stressed about exercise. We all need exercise and our housework provides much of it but we need to take time for fun things too.

Melba was elected secretary/treasurer to fill the vacancy created by the death of Ena Phipps. She steps into a difficult position as Ena was an outstanding secretary who had been an extension club member for many years. She is missed.

Irene Day presented the very interesting study lesson about literacy. Members all expressed ideas about education. According to the 1990 census nearly 25 percent of the population 25 years or older do not have high school diplomas.

A pleasant time of visiting was enjoyed as Virginia served a lively lunch.

Members look forward to another ride when Melba entertains on Oct. 17.

Florence Douglass was admitted last week in the Wray Community District Hospital.

Saturday dinner guests at the Richard Wall home were Dusty, Christy, Sydney and Gracie Wall, Jerry Murray and Art Vazquez.

By Opal Collicott

Grace Adams and Velma Neville were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Gerald and Betty Myer.

Charlie and Myrna Mulligan returned home Sunday evening from a weekend trip to Greeley and Estes Park, Colo.

Reverend Dr. Njenga Kariuki called Sunday at the home of LaVoine Collicott.

Richard and Laura Pearl Wall visited Sunday afternoon at the Jeff Lee home.

Friday evening visitors in the home of LaVoine and Opal Collicott were Melissa Rosenfelt and sons Mitchell and Matthew Collicott.

Carol Flaming and Logan Klein, Blaine Lee, MerryLu Simmons and Amber Simmons visited Monday in the home of Laura Pearl Wall.

Opal Collicott called Sunday afternoon in the home of sister Grace Adams.

Participate in an Upcoming Promotion in the Bird City Times

The Saint Francis Herald

For more details, contact the St. Francis Herald at 785-332-3162

4-H Tab

To be inserted in October.

This tab features a collection of articles celebrating 4-H Week and the 4-H Clubs in Cheyenne County.

Kids

You take care of the grades — and we'll take care of the memories!

BOOSTER SPONSOR

Your name or business will be acknowledged everytime we run a Booster Ad, and by being a Booster Sponsor you will be helping to promote school activities & feature team photos throughout the school year!

American Pride

The Flag that inspired Francis S. Key to write our National Anthem. I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Read the history of behind the American Flag. Check out this website: <http://www.usflag.org/toc.html>

$99.75 plus FREE Hook-up

For six months Regularly $19.95 per month plus one time hook-up fee

UNLIMITED ACCESS INTERNET

features Fast Modems & Superior Service

nwkansas.com

For more information about the Internet and how to sign up with nwkansas.com, contact us at

The Saint Francis Herald

P.O. Box 1050 • St. Francis, Kan. • 785-332-3162

