

Mr. and Mrs. David Maloley

Couple exchanges vows on June 15

Karah Le Dankenbring and David Joseph Maloley, both of Lincoln, Neb., were united in marriage on June 15, 2002. Pastor Megan Morrow performed the ceremony at Southwood Lutheran Church in Lincoln.

Parents of the couple are Keith and Cinda Dankenbring of St. Francis and Joe and Linda Maloley of Lexington, Neb. Karah's grandparents are Meta Dankenbring, Bird City, and the late Vernon Dankenbring, and Edna Lanam, Garden City, and the late Burton Lanam. David's grandparents are the late George and Mary Maloley, and Rosella Anderson, Lincoln, and the late Robert Andersen.

Matron of honor was Canda Orten, sister of the bride, of Bird City. Karah's attendants were Summer Foster, Elk City, Okla., Penny Krien and Shara Johnson, both of St. Francis and sister of the groom, Alyssa Maloley of Lincoln. The best man was David's brother, Matt Maloley, of Lincoln. His groomsmen were Jeremy McCroden of O'Neill, Neb., Dustin Young and Ryan Wind, both of Denver, and Ryan Foote of Scottsbluff, Neb. Karah's niece, Mary Anne Orten, was the flower girl. Her nephews, Wil and Adam Orten, served as ring bearers.

Serving as ushers were Travis Brandt, Las Vegas, and Tom Wolf, Wichita, cousins of the groom Doug Maloley, Lexington, Shane Maloley, Tecumseh, Neb., and John Maloley, Allen, Texas, and brother-in-law of the bride, Don Orten, Bird City.

The vocalist was Brandi Jones, Colby, and the lector was Kate Burrell, Indianola, Iowa. Candle lighters were Leigh Ann Faulkender of Laramie, Wyo., and cousin of the bride, Dena Geier, of Lincoln. Wendee Brungardt, Bailey, Colo., and Nicole Limoges, Santa Clara, Calif., served as guest book attendants. Trisha Foote, a friend of the couple from Scottsbluff, served as the bride's personal attendant. Phillip and Ashley Maloley, Holdrege, Neb., were the couple of honor at the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Champions Club hosted by cousins of the groom, Steve, Terri and Zach Maloley, Kearney, Neb., and Tom, Kate, and Blake Salem of Lincoln. After a honeymoon trip to Catalina Island, Calif., the couple will reside in Columbia, S.C., where David is a dentist in the United States Army.

Arts Association schedules programs

The Nebraska Theatre Caravan will soon be coming to Oakley with the enchanting I Do! I Do! A Musical About Marriage. This family favorite follows Michael and Agnes through 50 years of marriage - raising a family, mid-life crises, quarrels and reconciliation. From the creators of The Fantastiks, musical masters Harvey Schmidt and Tom Jones have written a show filled with great song, including the show-stopping favorites My Cup Runneth Over and Flaming Agnes.

Nebraska Theatre Caravan is currently celebrating its silver anniversary season. The professional touring wing of the Omaha Community Playhouse has been bringing quality entertainment and educational opportunities to communities across the state and throughout the nation for over 25 years. As part of the celebration, the caravan and Alltel welcome the audience to a post-performance anniversary reception, it the show's actions.

The musical will be presented at 3 p.m. Sunday at Oakley High School auditorium. Admission is Western Plains Arts Association passes or at the door.

This is a Heartland Arts Fund program. The Heartland Arts Fund is a collaborative venture of Arts Midwest, Mid-America Arts Alliance, their 15 member state arts agencies, with primary funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, and support from private contributors.

On Monday the Oakley elementary students will see the caravan present The Brave Little Princess and in the afternoon the middle and high school students at Oakley will see And Then They Came For Me: Remembering the World of Anne Frank. These plays also are Heartland Arts Fund programs.

February 18, 1984 - October 1, 2001

Softly the stars shining
Upon her precious grave
Beneath lies one we dearly love,
But whom we could not save.
People may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile.
Little do they know the heartache that our smiles hide all the while.
We mourn for her in silence
no one can see us weep
But many silent tears we shed
while others are asleep.
He says time heals all the sorrows,
and helps us all forget.
God gave us strength to fight it,
and courage to bear the blow.
But what it meant to love her,

no one will ever know.
Loved you yesterday,
Love you still,
Always have and always will.
