Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Haugsness

Lovely late afternoon wedding ceremony held

Vinecia Rae Krien, daughter of Stan and Becky Krien of St. Francis and Christopher Adam Haugsness, son of Dave and Diane Taylor and Craig Haugsness and Diane Leupold of Topeka, were united in marriage in a lovely late afternoon ceremony at the Peace Lutheran Church in St. Francis. Pastor Joe Briseno performed the double-ring ceremony.

Special out-of-town guests were Irvin and Mary Alice Lassman and John and Mary Ann Haugsness, all of Chanute, grandparents of the groom. Roses were placed on the altar in memory of the bride's grandparents, Reubin and Millie Johnson.

Musical selections included Because You Loved Me during the seating of the mothers, I Could Not Ask For More when lighting the unity candle and Wind Beneath My Wings during the presentation of gifts, with Debbie Fiala of St. Francis at the organ. The processional was Pachelbel: Cannon in D and the recessional Wedding March.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an off-the-shoulder satin dress with beaded bodice, chapel-length train and waist-length veil. She wore satin slippers.

Brooke Draper, St. Francis, was the bride's maid of honor. She wore a hunter green chiffon, low back, sleeveless dress and carried three long-stemmed roses. Serving as bridesmaids were Jana Krien, St. Francis, sister of the bride, Sarah Haugsness, Topeka, sister of the groom and Nicole Fisher, Topeka. They wore dresses identical to the maid of honor and carried a single long-stem rose.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with tails, silver vest and silver

Windsor tie.

Best man Aaron Campbell, Topeka and groomsmen Jon Hildebrand, Bartlesville, Okla., cousin of the groom, Nathan Richards, Lawrence and Curtis Kitchen, Topeka, were dressed in black tuxedos with hunter green vests and back Windsor ties.

Aaron Schendel, cousin of the bride, and James Lassmann, cousin of the groom, were candlelighters. They wore tuxedos like the groomsmen.

Ushers were Marcus Mason, Littleton, Colo.; Ryan Briggs, Brooklyn Park, Minn., cousin of the bride and Braden Krien, Greeley, Colo., cousin of the bride.

A reception was held at the Cheyenne County Fairgrounds following the ceremony.

Serving the three-tiered fountain cake with intertwined roses were April Sutton and Dana Ledbetter. Hosts and hostesses for the reception were Kelly and Jo Frewen and Brian and Kaycee Siegfried, Nicole Butkowski and Crystal Briggs presided at the gift table.

The couple honeymooned at Orlando, Fla., Walt Disney World.

The bride is a 1998 graduate of St. Francis Community High School and earned a bachelor of arts degree from Washburn University in the fall of 2001 with a major in computer information systems and a minor in business. She is a PC/network support for Martin Tractor in Topeka.

The groom is a 1998 graduate of Topeka West and graduated from Washburn University in the spring of 2002 with a bachelor of arts degree in computer information systems. He is the communications director for Kansas Redimix Concrete Association.

The couple is at home in Topeka.

From corral to chorale

The Fine Arts Chorale of Kansas City is proud to announce the selection of Monika (Kamla) Bonavia to perform in its 2002-2003 concert season. Ms. Bonavia was chosen from among 30 amateur and professional Kansas City area vocalists, who auditioned for one of the coveted positions with the Chorale. Her high school, collegiate and community vocal work have laid the groundwork for this new and challenging endeavor.

Founded in 1972, the Chorale provides the Kansas City area with high caliber, choral music of the Renaissance and 20th century. The Chorale is made up of approximately 40 male and female voices from all walks of life and professions. The current director of the Chorale is Terri Teal, who has held this position since 1992.

The 2002-03 concert season consists of four programs: Stairway to Heaven, Oct. 19 and 27; Home for the Holidays, Dec. 15; To the Heart of the Matter, Feb. 14; and Community of Song, April 12.

Daniel Gawthrop's compelling Sing Me To Heaven and Irving Berlin's Blue Skies will be featured in the season's first concert along with traditional choral literature from Handel, Haydn and Brahms.

Ms. Bonavia looks forward to seeing as many of you as possible at one of the performances!

She is the daughter of John and Maria Kamla of Bird City.

First birthday celebrated

Celebrating his first birthday is Jayden Andrew Boyson, son of Nicholas and Heather (Weeks) Boyson of Bird City. Jayden celebrated with a Halloween theme birthday on Oct. 12 with all guests arriving in costume, and enjoying his Frankenstein Cake and Witches Potion Punch. After the presents were opened, guests enjoyed breaking open the pumpkin pinata full of treats.

On Oct. 13, Jayden celebrated his birthday in St. Francis with his Uncle Ryan of Goodland, Great-Grandpa Petitjean of St. Francis and friend Helen McKnight of Sterling, Colo., and Grandma Carol of Kansas City. Uncle Ryan made a special Dale Earnhart Cake for Jayden, and Great-Grandpa made the famous Petitjean homemade ice-cream.

Jayden Andrew Boyson

Jayden is the grandson of Carol Weems of Kansas City, Dale and Sherry Weeks, and Michael and Belinda Boyson of Bird City. He is the great-grandson of Chuck Petitjean and the late Helen Petitjean, Norris and Doris Anderson, William and Pat Weeks of Hoxie and the late Beth Weeks, William and Dolly Boyson, and Darlene Burr all of Bird City and the late William Burr. Jayden has one great-great-grandmother Ruth Petitjean of Arapahoe, Neb.
