Genealogy Korner

By Marilyn Holzwarth

Do you have family in Concordia,? Last week Irene Andrist gave us a neat little booklet Prairie Portrait, a Centennial Book for Concordia 1871-1971. While looking through it, I did find I Remember, stories written by Ray Sawhill and another by Dr. Eldon Sawhill.

An entry I enjoyed reading was a paragraph taken from a newspaper between 1871 and 1881.

"Remember the Sabbath Day and Keep it Holy. By going swimming in public places is not keeping it holy. We are informed that a number of persons from town have got into the habit of going swimming at the dam, which is a public highway, and making, in some instances, outrageous exposure of a person. This vicinity is now a favorite of our citizens and their wives and daughters, and the luxury of swimming cannot be indulged without gross indecency, and we should think that any man of sense, young or old, would realize this. Some isolated place should be chosen for bathing purposes, and we trust this intimation will be sufficient. If it is not, we will feel in duty bound to demand in the name of public decency and morality, that the constable break up this offense."

There are several such interesting quotations from newspapers, and several pictures. We will enjoy it for a while before finding a permanent home for it.
