Trick or treat for UNICEF

Haigler Sunday school children will be collecting for UNICEF on Halloween night, Oct. 31.

Children are asked to meet at the United Methodist church at 5 p.m. mountain time. Please bring finger food to share afterward. Donations will be used this year to help eradicate polio in the ten countries where it is still a threat. Each dollar will immunize a child for life and bring us closer to a polio-free world.

Greetings from Opal Collicott

Greetings from your news correspondent, Opal Collicott, of the Haigler Happenings. Have you missed the news the past three weeks of October? I returned home on Thursday, Oct. 24, from the Dundy County Hospital following hip surgery on Oct. 3 at North medical Center in Greeley, Colo.

I'm happy to be home again and welcome your news articles anytime during the week before Monday noon when they are mailed.

General Election Nov. 5

Polls on General Election Day, Nov. 5 for the Haigler Precinct will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. mountain time, at the American Legion Hall in Haigler.

Introducing

Ivan Alfonso Montes

Martin and Eva Montes of Haigler are proud to announce the birth of a son, Ivan Alfonso, on Monday, Oct. 14, 2002, at Dundy County Hospital at Benkelman, Neb. The handsome lad tipped the scales at 8 pounds, 8.3

ounces and measured 21 inches in length. Assisting in the delivery was Dr. Shiuvaun Torres. A sister, Karen, age 10 years and two brothers, Martin, age 7 and Alexis, age 19 months welcomed his arrival.

His grandparents are Ernesto Montes and Marielena Anaya and Graniscia Jurado, all of Chihuahua, Mexico.

Death notice

Olive Stasser, a long-time resident of Haigler, died Saturday night, Oct. 26, following a lengthy illness. No arrangements are known at this writing.

Rainbow Family and Community Education Unit

Melba Harford entertained Rainbow Family and Community Education on Oct. 17. All members and one guest, Phyllis Clark, were present. Virginia Harford presented the lesson about Telemedicine. Melba showed the new recipe book.

Lillian stressed the importance of a good breakfast. All had a good visit while we enjoyed the lovely lunch. Melba's yard was lovely and her flowers beautiful. Seemed like a bonus to view them and all appreciated the lovely fall day on the ride back to Haigler. Irene Day will entertain in November. This club report is late because of the news reporter's hospitalization. We are glad to have Opal back on the job.

Concert planned

A special fund-raising event will take place in Haigler on Wednesday evening, Oct. 30, at the Haigler Elementary School gymnasium at 7 p.m. mountain standard time. James King and his band will be performing for a bluegrass concert. Haigler Girl Scouts Alicia Crouse and Paige Stute, in order to help them obtain the Bronze Award in Girl Scouting, have set their sights on a community project to purchase new playground equipment for the Haigler Park. A Village of Haigler Park Improvement Committee has been formed by the residents of the town.

Daniela Webster called Sunday evening at the home of her grandparents, LaVoine and Opal Collicott. She was enroute to Lafayette, Colo., to continue college in Boulder, Colo., having spent the weekend here in the home of her parents, Stan and Galena Webster.

Elaine and George Corkle of Walden, Colo., and Dallas Adams and wife, Judy, of Camano Island, Wash., have returned to their homes after being here to attend the funeral of their sister, Eloise Adams, on Oct. 14, at the Forch Funeral Chapel in Benkelman with the Reverend Norman Prather officiating. Elaine and George Corkle returned to their home on Tuesday, Oct. 14 and Dallas and Judy Adams returned on Friday, Oct. 18.

By Opal Collicott

Reverend Terry Douglass and wife, Karen, of Yuma, Colo., Rob White and Bridgette Douglass of Colorado Springs, Colo., spent Saturday, Oct. 26, in the home of Florence Douglass. Terry and Karen brought pizza from Yuma and all enjoyed lunch with Florence.

Friday evening guests in the home of Velma Neville were Gerald and Betty Myer and Grace Adams. The evening was spent playing Hearts.
