Book Review

Book Review from the St. Francis Library

Eleventh Hour
By Catherine Coulter

When Father Michael Joseph is viciously murdered in his San Francisco church, his identical twin brother, FBI agent Dane Carver, along with husband-and-wife agents Savich and Sherlock, is determined to find the monster responsible. There is a witness, a homeless woman whose identity is an enigma. When Nicola "Nick" Jones comes forward, Dane finds himself in the unlikely role of bodyguard: she just might be next on the killer's list. But which killer's list? It seems Nick Jones is running from her own nightmare.

In a cat-and-mouse chase that runs from the streets of San Francisco to the television studios of Los Angeles, where a brand-new show is found to have a curious connection to the murders. Dane Carver, Savich and Sherlock are in a race against time to find the madman responsible, but it's already the 11th hour.

Packed with surprises, Eleventh Hour find Catherine Coulter at her breath-taking best.
