Do you own an ATV, Jet Ski, Boat, Motorcycle or small engine equipment?

Do you own a business related to these?
Do you enjoy working on your own engines?

THEN YOU NEED TO CALL YOUR CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS TODAY!!

The EPA has introduced a proposed rule that adopts the stringent California emissions standards and imposes them nationwide.

According to the Motorcycle Riders Foundation, the EPA's proposed rulemaking will ban venerated engine families and destroy a vast industry of small businesses. "The EPA has lifted the axe and the chopping block is tens of thousands of jobs in America and a culture embraced by millions of Americans."

Senator James Barcia-D(MI) has introduced legislation that opposes this ruling.

THE DEADLINE FOR PUBLIC COMMENT TO THE EPA IS JANUARY 7TH!!

CALL TODAY! TELL YOUR LEADERS TO SUPPORT THE BARCIA ACT!!

Notice Graduates

A message to Idalia school graduates, on Monday, Jan. 6 at 8 p.m. You are urged to return to the Idalia school greenhouse for the annual sharing of your experiences with present high school students. Even if you are in college, trade school, the services or on the job. Please pass this information to others and we welcome you all to the greenhouse Monday, Jan. 6 from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. Donuts and juice will be served.

Idalia FFA Recycling Project

The FFA has began a Recycling Project in conjunction with the Yuma County Landfill. They have purchased several tubs and saved cardboard boxes that are set at various places around the school and community. There are tubs placed at the post office for community use. Office paper and newspapers can be recycled together. They also recycle magazine/catalogs and corrugated cardboard boxes. You may throw your boxes in the trailer located outside the ag shop (north of the shop door). There are also blue barrels located by this trailer where you can bring your office paper/newspaper, and your magazine/catalogs. Everyone is encouraged to recycled items that you use at work and at home.
