Sainty wins league dual over Goodland

By Betty Jean Winston
The St. Francis Indians had a strong performance in dual action with Northwest Kansas League opponent Goodland on Friday evening. This was Parents' Night and all varsity wrestlers and their parents were introduced to the fans. Senior wrestlers, Kevin Brown, Travis Hilt and Dallas Walz; cheerleaders Heidi Rohweder and January Fiedler and filmer Robin Burton and their parents received special recognition.

The Indians proceeded to show the fans the improvements that they have made in their skills since the St. Francis Invitational in early December. When the evening was finished St. Francis had a 44-22 league victory. "It was a great team effort," Coach Larry Gabel said. "It was a very satisfying win. It is fun to see their confidence grow and their skill level improve. I feel like the kids are getting better each week.

"We appreciate the crowd support and enthusiasm. The place was rockin' during the double-overtime match of Gabe's (Walz)."

Winning for the Indians were Trevor Richard, Dylan Loyd, Matt Brown, K. Brown, Gabe Smull, Trey Hilt, Kyle Buffington, Travis Hilt and Gabe Walz.
