Mr. and Mrs. Merle Armstrong

Couple celebrate 50th wedding anniversary

An openhouse, Saturday, April 26, will honor Donna and Merle Armstrong of Edson as they celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. The reception is planned from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Goodland United Methodist Church located at 12th and Sherman. Friends and relatives are welcome. They request no gifts. The hosts for the reception will be their children and spouses: Vickie and Bennie Haremza, Brenda and Cody Lingo, Scott Armstrong and Mike and Karen Armstrong. The Armstrong's have 11 grandchildren. Merle Armstrong and the former Donna Collins were married April 25, 1953, at Fort Carson, Colorado Springs.

Couple weds March 8 in Nebraska

Amanda Kaye Terry and Chad Alan Schnakenberg were united in marriage on March 8, 2003, at Centennial Lutheran Church, Superior, Neb. Pastor Paul Albrecht performed the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Dean Terry of Goodland, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Schnakenberg of Webber. Grandmother of the bride is Jean Loyd of St. Francis.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white dulce satin. The gown's tank top empire bodice with square neckline was edged with bugle beads. The empire bodice and A-line skirt was enhanced with beaded appliques and flowed into a beautiful cathedral-length train.

Genella Wolfe, Pittsburg, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Amy Schnakenberg, Hastings, Neb., sister of the groom; Karla Doetsch, Colorado Springs, sister of the groom; and Sherri Biery, Clyde. Flower girls were Molly and Madison Whitefoot, Belleville. Personal attendant was Suzan Whitefoot, Belleville.

Chad Shearer, Skiatook, Okla., served as the best man. Grooms men were Brandon Terry, Goodland, brother of the bride; Troy Johnson, Concordia; and Mike Gieber, Belleville. Ring bearer was Austen Biery, Clyde.

Guests were seated by ushers, Daryl Loyd, St. Francis, uncle of the bride, and Dylan Loyd, St. Francis, cousin of the bride. Candle lighters were Dara Loyd, St. Francis, cousin of the bride, and Morghan Whitefoot, Belleville.

Guest book attendants were: Miranda Wiedel, Belvidere, Neb., cousin of the groom, and Tara Hissong, Lincoln, Neb., cousin of the groom. Programs were given out by Meghan Whitefoot, Belleville.

Music was provided by organist Heather Dahl, Courtland, and violinist Pat McCord, Superior, Neb. Soloists were Reed Wilson, Clyde and Deb Knox, Clyde.

A reception, dinner and dance was held following the ceremony in Hardy, Neb., at the community center. Host parents for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Porter, St. Francis; Mr. and Mrs. Randy Hissong, Hebron, cousins of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson, Concordia. Cake servers were Rhonda Murphy, Kosse, Texas, Tonya Elliott, Purcell, Okla., Keeley Loyd, St. Francis, aunt of the bride, and Jill Eyestone, Denver. Gift attendants were Angie and Tricia Hissong, Hebron, cousins of the groom. The bride is a graduate of St. Francis Community High School and Cloud County Community College. She is employed as a registered nurse at Republic County Hospital in Belleville.

The groom is a graduate of Belleville High School and Fort Hays State University. He is employed as vice president of Central Bank in Superior, Neb.

After a honeymoon to the West Indies Island of St. Lucia, the couple is at home in Webber.

Dunn-Starkey

Couple to wed

Jim and Jeanne Dunn of St. Francis announce the engagement of their daughter, Jessica Dawn to Dr. Charles William Starkey, son of Fred and Bonnie Starkey of Clarksville, Ark.

Jessica will graduate from Kansas State University in May with a master's degree in science in nutritional muscle growth and development.

Charles graduated from Kansas State University in December with a Ph.D. in swine nutrition and is employed by Roche Vitamins, Inc.

The couple is planning a July wedding at the First United Methodist Church in Manhattan.
