

'Saturday in the Park' car show has rain —

The Saturday in the Park car show was deemed a success despite the rain and cold temperatures Saturday. Above, vehicles were lined up on three sides of Sawhill Park and, had the weather been better, there would have been cars parked all around the park and around the city park. Clockwise: The People's Choice Award went to Jake Brooks with his 1937 Chevy Coupe. He was from Scott City. Dale Leydig, St. Francis, shows off his tractor. Linford Oster had a variety of bedding plants at the flea market. Steve Confer, right, talks to Mike Slattery. Looking on are Roger Neitzel and Erin Neitzel. Scout troop 120 brought in the Colors.
