

Memorial Day Services held—

FOUR DIFFERENT MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES were held in the St. Francis area over the weekend. At the top, only a small group braved the cold wind as they met at Cheyenne Valley south of Wheeler. Clockwise, Amelia Fae (Follett) Elder of Aurora, Colo., had come with her sisters Annette Franklin, Manhattan; and Virginia Wheeler of Westminister, Colo., to decorate the grave of their parents Victor and Velva Follett who are buried at Cheyenne Valley Cemetery. Chad Miller sang several selections at the service held at the St. Francis Cemetery. Others pictured are Connie Miller, Pastor Nel Holmes, Sam Miller, commander, Paige Gardner and Fred Magley. Cliff and Judy Raile look at the new burial map and other information recently erected at Hope Valley Cemetery. Behind Mr. Raile is Gerald Feikert who made the holder and printed the information. Justin and Paige Gardner place flags on veterans graves on Saturday. The Rebekah and Odd Fellows held a short service at the St. Francis Cemetery. June Henderson places a rose in the vase.
