Thank You

My family and I want to thank the St. Francis community for the wonderful support you have shown us throughout my illness, surgery and treatment program as well as our move to San Antonio.

Words cannot express our deep gratitude for the church families who lifted us up in prayer. When our burdens seemed to be overwhelming, your phone calls, cards, e-mails or flowers arrived to lighten our load. While miles may separate us, our hearts will long remember your many acts of love and kindness. A year has passed and I thank God for my health, my family and all the wonderful classmates and friends. May His richest blessing be upon you all. Julie (Burnham) Kerstetter

The family of Don Boyson would like to express our sincere thanks to the many folks who gave us sympathy cards, hand shakes, words of sympathy, food and etc. after our boy passed away on June 19. It was a very sad occurrence to us, but you, our friends, made it easier, words can hardly express our appreciation. It will never be forgotten. Also a word for the Bird City ambulance and crew. When they were called, they were here in minutes. Each one of the crew worked fast and efficiently. They had Don in the hospital in record time. Thank you ambulance crew! Sincerely, Bill, Dolly, Mike and Ron.

We want to thank the volunteer department for a quick response to our fire at the corner of a wheat field on June 23. We have no idea what started the fire on a bright sunny afternoon. Thank you, Victor and Harvey Zweygardt

Thank you family and friends for all the cards, flowers and gifts. Thanks to my family for making my birthday special. Pearl Busby

Thank you to all who supported me through this past week I spent preparing for the Junior Miss Program. It was a wonderful seven days. I would also like to thank all of the generous contributors who gave time, money, gifts, and food to this program. All of you made us feel so special. The week would not have been possible without all the hard work and countless hours of preparation by the Junior Miss committee and the backstage moms. Thank you also to the seven awesome girls that I had the opportunity to share this experience with. It was definitely a week I will never forget. We are truly fortunate to have such a wonderful program. I am looking forward to the next year I will spend representing Cheyenne County. Hayley Young

Entertainment for State fair told

Contemporary music fans will be excited with the addition of two cutting-edge groups to the grandstand line-up at the Kansas State Fair. B2K and Evanescence complete the entertainment schedule that features an exciting variety of live performances during the 2003 Party on the Prairie.

Kicking off grandstand entertainment on Friday, Sept. 5 will be the four-member group B2K. The youthful rap group's style has been described as "fun with an edge."

Evanescence, a talented four-member group, will take to the stage on Saturday, Sept. 6. This group has found many fans who are intrigued by the group's epic, dramatic rock.

On Tuesday, Sept. 9 featured will be the Country Gold Tour, which hosts a showcase of traditional country recording artists including Leroy Van Dyke, David Frizzell, Rex Allen Jr., and Jimmy Fortune.

A Hutchinson native will be heard on Patriots Day, Thursday, Sept. 11. Opening for country recording artist Aaron Tippin will be singer/songwriter Amy Chappell.

On Saturday, Sept. 13 will be hot country trio Rascal Flatts with opening act Phil Vassar, and on Sunday, Sept. 14 will be classic rock recording artist Meat Loaf.

Other scheduled entertainment at the grandstand will be: Sunday, Sept. 7: a matinee and evening Outlaw Truck and Tractor Pull; Wednesday, Sept. 10 and Friday, Sept. 12, evening auto races; Thursday, Sept. 11 and Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 13 and 14: afternoon auto races.

Tickets will be available starting at 7 a.m. Saturday, July 12 by phone (620) 699-3618 or 1-800-362-3247; by mail order at The Kansas State Fair, 2000 North Poplar, Hutchinson, KS 67502-5598 (include self-addressed stamped envelope, or on-line at www.kansasstatefair.com).

Art Association release programs

A unique opportunity to bring outstanding drama, music and a variety of programs to the north-west Kansas area is being made available by local memberships through the annual promotion by the Western Plains Arts Association. Until July 20 memberships are available to persons in the Cheyenne County area.

These programs bring not only performances for the general public, but special programs to the schools. The program, or programs, to be held in St. Francis are to be announced. Those in the area may purchase memberships from Althea Lebow, (785) 332-3377, Helena Landenberger, (785) 332-2528 or Lee Nichols, (785) 332-3581.

Programs already scheduled include:

Sept. 14: New Orleans Blues Serenaders, with a show of traditional New Orleans Jazz from the stars from Broadway's One Mo' Time. at Hoxie.

Oct. 5: A Musical Tribute to Frank Sinatra by the Nebraska Theatre Caravan at Colby.

Oct. 16 and 17: Wichita Children's Theatre will do The Wizard of Oz for area schools with an evening performance for the public at Colby.

Oct. 26: Cowboy Envy with western music in the tradition of the Sons of the Pioneers at Hoxie.

Nov. 7: Popular selections by The Heartland of America Band from Offutt Airforce Base in Omaha, Neb., at Colby.

Nov. 16: Aries Brass Quintet, a select group from the Denver Brass at Atwood.

Dec. 12: The annually featured Christmas program when the Nebraska Theatre Caravan presents the classic A Christmas Carol at Colby.

Jan. 11: The Seem-to-be-Players will present the beloved Tales of Tom Sawyer at Oakley.

Jan. 18: A variety show featuring Kelly Werts "fiddling," singing and story telling and playing some unusual instruments at Sharon Springs.

March 4: Windwood Theatricals will present a large-production musical of the famous Unsinkable Molly Brown at Colby.

March 14: Glen Road, an Irish traditional music group will have an especially appropriate program for St. Patrick's Day at Quinter.

April 1: Red, Hot and Blue, a song and dance revue from Branson, Mo., will take the audience on a musical journey through the 20th Century at Oakley.

April 25: Stardust, a vivacious female vocal trio whose spirit captures the essence of bygone eras will be at Goodland.

Performances at various school are also on the agenda throughout the year.

Despite a seemingly full agenda, other programs being planned include the CCC Jazz Ensemble and Sunflower Singers, Accessible Arts Theatrical Company with The Return of the Scarlet Pimpernel and an organ recital and workshop by Janet Kraybill.

Plan now to have a fulfilling season filled with a variety of entertainment that would not come to the communities and schools without the support of memberships. The cooperative efforts of those supporting the Western Plains Arts Association brings into the area excellent performances that would not be affordable on an individual basis.

Local riders participate in horse show

Megan Rice, Amy Rice, Dennon Zimbelman, Alecia Zimbelman, Megan Douthit and Marla Rice were among those riders who competed at the Colorado Super Circuit Quarter Horse Show in Pueblo, Colo. This was a five-day show which draws entries from many states.

The riders competed in different events but some of the specific events were: Megan Rice,

Breakaway Roping; Dennon, English classes and Showmanship; Amy, Western Pleasure; Megan Douthit, Western Pleasure; and Marla, Hunter Under Saddle Class. Alicia participated in a new event

"Working Cow Horse." All of the riders placed well in their classes throughout the week.

Amy Rice and Megan Rice are traveling to Rapid City, S.D., in July for a six-day show which is one of the larger quarter horse shows in the states.

They will compete with their horses and hopefully do some sightseeing

The jet stream has taken up its summer position, stretching from Washington to Minnesota, Michigan and New England. Heat is building over the southern and central Rocky Mountains, the Desert Southwest and the Great Basin. That heat will be spilling across the central and southern Plains. A weak cool front will come close enough Friday and Saturday to touch off scattered thunderstorms, then retreat to the north Monday and Tuesday, allowing the heat to leak back.
