Thank You

Thanks to Dr. Miller, Pat Delano, Nadja Button and all the nurses at the hospital for the care I received while there. Thanks to all the friends and relatives for the prayers, the flowers, food and well wishes for a speedy recovery. All your thoughts are greatly appreciated. St. Francis is a great place to call home. Ethel Whitten.

The Cheyenne County Hospital would like to thank the family of Norman Haack for their generous memorial contribution to the hospital.

The family of Keith Kehmeier wants to express our thanks to all of you who sent the many cards for our 50th wedding anniversary and the sympathy cards for Keith's death, and the Keith Kehmeier memorial scholarship fund. You are all still our dear friends and we think of you often. Sincerely Elizabeth, Andy and Karl Kehmeier.

A big thank you to all the people at the Wesleyan Community Church who helped with my recent illness, to all the EMTs and to Dr. Miller and the staff at the Cheyenne County Hospital. Also thank you to all who prayed and were concerned about me. It is really great to live in a community of such caring friends. Marvin and Wanda Dowdy

Idalia News

By Elsie Shanks

Meet the Candidates
Idalia School District RJ-3 will be hosting a Meet the Candidate night on Monday, Oct. 27 at 7 p.m. in the old gym at Idalia School. The forum will consist of a moderator asking all candidates predetermined questions. School District RJ-3 will be electing three candidates for board of director in the Nov. 4 election. Seven candidates have completed petitions for the three board of director openings. The seven candidates are Brian Andrews, Brett Dutton, Brett Parker, Mark Ramseier, Tina Schiel, Wayne Weyerman and Brad Wingfield.

Halloween Celebration
The Idalia Student Council and Modern Woodmen of America will be sponsoring a Halloween Saf-T-Fun Fest. The event will be held from 1 p.m.-1:45 p.m. at the Idalia School old gym. Students will dress at 12:30 p.m.

Birthday Party
A birthday party was held for Elva Powell at Grace Manor Care Center in Burlington. She was 92 years old on Oct. 3. Burdine Homm was her dinner guest at noon. Elva is her sister.

Card Shower
Ann Chamberlain of Denver will be celebrating her 100th birthday on Oct. 25, at the Brown Palace Hotel in Denver. Ann is the sister of the late Ruth Wieser of Burlington and the late Bill Hartman of Wray. She is also a sister of the late Frieda McKee, Louise Wacker and Hulda Peters. Ann was born Oct. 25, 1903 on the family farm, south of Idalia. Cards may be sent to Ann Chamberlain, 940 Emerson St., Apt. 206, Denver, Colo. 80218.

Library Happenings
School is off and running and so is our automated checkout system. The students are struggling with the concept of not having to sign the checkout cards from the books. It is all done with a scanner, with them only needing to stamp a due date in the front of the book. The Scholastic Book Fair will be held from Oct. 27 through Nov. 2. The books have to be ready to be picked up on the 3rd. The money earned from this fair will be used to purchase books and other things needed for the library.

Trip
Geneva North and daughter Kitty Jacobs motored to Watkins where they joined her daughter and husband Don and Janice Elrich. They motored to Logendale, Nev., in their motor home to attend High Plains Tradition Blue Grass Band in which Doug Elrick participated in. They returned home after an eight day trip which they enjoyed.

Lions Club News
The annual Turkey shoot is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 2. There will be classes of shooters this year with each class competing for two turkeys a piece. There will be games and prizes for kids of all ages. You'll also find a cake walk, laughs and a fun time. Bring the whole family for a fun afternoon.

Time Change
Sunday, Oct. 26 daylight saving time ends. Don't forget to set your clocks back one hour.

Nov. 9, Mission Sunday, Kate Goodspeed from Denver will be our guest speaker. She has been a missionary to China for 8 years, working through the OCWM Missions of the United Church of Christ followed by a potluck dinner and an afternoon program with discussion.

State FFA News
It has been another exciting and busy month traveling from one side of the state to the other. Chapter visits are well on their way. The month started out in Sterling as the team met for two solid days to present workshops that had been developed. The opportunity to attend Ag Days at Colorado State University mingling with sponsors, representing the Colorado FFA association, watching football and eating lots of good food.

Angela Kirkpatrick, from Cedaredge and Jackie Doddridge traveled to Burlington along with two other fellow officers, to assist with the High Plains District Greenhand Workshop. From Burlington they headed over the western slope where they visited Delta, Fruita, Cedaredge, Montrose and Hotchkiss high schools. Each Chapter visit has been a great learning experience. It has been a big eye opener attending schools that have 200-1700 students. A couple of classes had no idea about FFA, which was one thing that was not expected. Angela and Jackie definitely shared the news of FFA with them though.

As the weekend approaches, Angela and Jackie are heading back to Colorado Springs for the Made Excellence (MFE) and advanced Leadership conference. Then they will continue with chapter visits in their High Plains District.

Upcoming events include attending the National Convention in Kentucky and heading south to Brazil in November. In Brazil they will tour various agriculture sites and learn more about our leading competitor in Agriculture.

Clark and Mildred Rolow visited their daughter, Phyllis Long in Goodland, Monday who is on oxygen now.

Justin Homm, student of Kansas State College of Manhattan was home last week visiting his parents, Larry and Dee Homm and grandparents, Howard and Burdine Homm and other relatives.

Chuck Arnold of Loveland was a Friday till Tuesday afternoon visitor and helper of Howard and Burdine Homm. Christy Arnold and Melissa were Saturday and Sunday visitors of their grandparents Howard and Burdine Homm.

Don and Shirley Schmidt of Salida were Thursday visitors and overnight guests of Virgil Lundvall and Violet Knapp. They all left Friday morning for Ravenwood, Mo., to visit Virgil and Violet's sister, Thelma Williams and niece Joan and husband, Vic McCord. George and Frieda Williams and family of Texas joined them for the weekend. Don was going to help them drive down as Thelma and Joan are not doing well.

Elsie Shanks was a Tuesday visitor of Burdine Homm and Howard and they gave her tomatoes out of their garden.

Ruth Richards returned home Sept. 28 after being in Legacy for awhile and happy to be home.

Earl VanTassell of Missouri arrived in Idalia Monday night where he stayed in the Prairie Vista Hotel and will visit friends in the area and take his stuff home he had left.

Tyson and Tonya Cure both students of Colorado State University of Fort Collins were home for the weekend and attended the homecoming game and etc. and were guests and visitors of their parents, John and Michelle Cure and family, and they enjoyed dinner Sunday at Prairie Vista Restaurant. The homecoming game was exciting and Idalia won over Woodlin. At half time Candice Walkinshaw was crowned Queen and Jody Rittenhouse was crowned king and they reigned at the homecoming dance Saturday night from 9 p.m. till midnight with Satin Sound and Lighting of Colby providing music.

Sheryl Wudtke, Roberta Moellenberg and Joyce Helling attended the state Master Farm Homemakers meeting held at the Ramada Inn in Fort Collins Oct. 15.

Roberta is the retiring state secretary. Jeanne Van Valkenberg of Walden was elected as the new secretary. Joyce is the current state treasurer. Thursday and Friday they all attended the National MFH meeting also at Ramada Inn and hosted by Colorado. There were 112 members and some spouses from Colorado, Kansas, Iowa, Kentucky, South Carolina and South Dakota registered. They enjoyed tours of the Terry Bison Ranch in Wyoming, Budwisers beer facility near Collins and a walking tour of Estes Park.

Troy Flick of Colorado Springs was a last Monday and Tuesday visitor and guest of his mother, Evelyn Flick.

Elden Flick of Fort Collins and friend, Joe of Aurora were Saturday and Sunday guests and visitors of his mother, Evelyn Flick.

Jason Query, student of Denver University, was a Sunday visitor of his mother, Karen Query and grandmother, Alma Clark and will remain a few days to help get ready for Alma's sale Sunday, November 2 with Jeff Raile of St. Francis as the auctioneer. They have had lots of visitors too. Jason is studying to be a pharmacist. Julie Query is studying to be a doctor and going to college in Iowa.
