

Plum Creek 4-H'ers performed a skit which earned them a regional blue and the opportunity to participate at Brewster on April 2.

County 4-H Day 2004

CHEYENNE COUNTY 4-H DAY was held on Saturday. The 4-H'ers were busy as they scurried back and forth to events. The Lifeskills Judging was a popular contest and Craig and Sydney Busse, front, did well in the contest. Bottom, the judge for the Favorite Food Contest talked to Amy Hilt about the food she had fixed and the table display. Amy received a blue ribbon. Clockwise: Katelyn Jones gave a demonstration on the disappearing bucket which she showed how to disguised a 5-quart ice cream bucket so it can be used as a gift basket.
