Students do well at livestock show

By Betty Jean Winston

Two St. Francis students were involved in spring livestock shows during the first weekend in May.

Darin Wiley traveled to Curtis, Neb., and did well in a show that had two rings.

He won two awards by earning Senior Showmanship in both rings.

Wiley's Shorthorn Steer won first place in his class in both rings also. His Maine Anjou Steer was the Reserve Champion in one ring and placed third in the other ring and his Maine Anjou Heifer was Reserve Champion in both rings.

Amber Havel participated in the Loyalty Day Spring Livestock Show in Tribune on Saturday and placed in a number of lamb and hog categories.

In the lamb division she placed both fourth and sixth (two different lambs) in the Breeding Ewe class; fourth in her Hemp class; second in her Cross class and first in her Suffolk class.

Havel also showed hogs and had the following placings: first in her Breeding Gilt class, third in her York class; seventh in her Hemp class, sixth in her Cross class and she was fifth in Senior Showmanship.

In Memory Of Krissy Barnhart

May 7, 1991 - October 23, 2002

Happy Birthday In Heaven Krissy ~

Today is your birthday without candles and cake. And since you are not with us, we will not celebrate. We cannot send you a birthday card, your hands we cannot touch. So we ask God to give a message to the one we love so much. And grant us one wish, and make it come true. To have his choir of angels sing, Happy Birthday to you.

Deeply missed
by your family
