University of Nebraska at Kearney

Ashley Holzwarth of St. Francis was among the students from across the midwest who traveled to the University of Nebraska at Kearney to attend Student Advising and Enrollment sessions this summer. Incoming freshmen and their parents come to the campus during June and July for one-day sessions where they get better acquainted with the campus, learn more about campus life, explore financial aid options and enroll in fall classes.

"This is the first chance for incoming freshmen to come to campus and learn about the various campus offices, activities they can get involved in and meet with academic advisers," LeeAnn Amm, University of Nebraska at Kearney assistant director of admissions, said.

"The visitors have the opportunity to meet and talk with current students, as well as attend informational tours of the campus."

Pastor and Mrs. Harold Petersen

Open house planned

The family of Pastor Harold and Corrine Petersen are holding an open house to help them celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary from 2 to 6 p.m. mountain time, Saturday, July 31, at the First United Methodist Church in Goodland. They were married Oct. 29, 1954.
