In Loving Memory

Memories of Eloyce

Poem by Ruth Anne Yonkey
Eloyce Ann was a person who liked to soar.

Graduating from high school and college opened careers door. Teaching school, being a realtor, catering, baking, canning and more, selling ads for the Sherman County Star were the working core.

She was a Master Gardener, which enriched her love for growing trees and shrubs and vegetables and flowers and more.

Eloyce was the only girl out of Clarence and Lila Yonkey's children of four.

At Eric and Roxie's wedding, punch she did pour. Caring especially for dog pets to her was never a chore.

Being a grandmother she did adore. Eloyce enjoyed Gabriella, Lakyn, Layne and Shayna galore.

She loved to read, and listen to various types of music and added to it, perhaps a little folklore.

On the farm the various vehicle engines would roar and fairly often persons would come knocking at the door.

To household duties she would tend and many clothes she did sew and mend.

On special events a card she would send.

When people needed help with something, a helping hand she would lend.

Eloyce liked to dance and ski.

She was only five month younger than me.

Eloyce over the years had her share of surgeries and illnesses but never giving up was the key.

Through her faith in God and Christ, she now is in heaven with thee.

This is my good memories poem of Eloyce you see.

Whether to all of us she had the titles of dear friend, neighbor, wife, mother, grandmother, granddaughter, sister-in-law, aunt or cousin, her months of suffering is no more.
