

FAIR WEEK BEGINS

FAIR ACTIVITIES BEGAN last Friday with the judging of arts and crafts at the fairgrounds. The 4-H'ers were given the weekend before the week of activities began on Monday starting with the Fashion Revue judging and Public Style Revue. Top left, C.J. Douthit was one of the participants in the 4-H Dog Show Tuesday morning. She gives her dog Buddy, a rewarding pat; counterclockwise: Alecia Zimbelman was back stage getting ready before modeling her dress in the Buymanship division. Alecia took first in the division. Heidi Yonkey had her crafts judged. Craig Busse entertained the audience during a pause in the Public Fashion Revue; Valerie Wurm modeled her casual outfit.

