St. John United Church of Christ

St. John United Church of Christ invites everyone to come join them. Sunday school is at 10 a.m. Worship service is at 11 a.m. Confirmation classes will begin Oct. 3 during Sunday school.

Campout

Bill and Peggy Carpenter hosted a group of friends for the annual Beecher Island campout. Friends started arriving on Wednesday, including Carol and Eddy of Texas, Ray and Laquite Linton of Colorado Springs, Gene and Judy Schuster of Lakewood. Joining them for supper Thursday were Cecil and Heather Dull, and Chelby and Eddy of Idalia. Others joining the campout were Delores Smith (who is helping at the Carpenter's home and Carpenter Mini Mall), Chuck Eddy of Lakewood, Don and Marte Eddy of Morrison, Charlie, Doris and Judy Brown of Denver and granddaughter Faith Carpenter of Idalia.

Retirement Supper

There will be a retirement celebration on Wednesday, Sept. 22 at Homestead Memorial building at 6 p.m. in honor of Gail Mansfield, Donna Mosier and Lucille Rossbach. This potluck event will be for these ladies that have dedicated countless years of service to come and wish them well as they begin their retirement. Table service and drinks will be provided.

Idalia Football

The Idalia Wolves kicked off their season with a hard-hitting game in Otis against the Pawnee Coyotes. The Wolves came out on their offensive drive to score a touchdown only to be answered with an opposing score from the ambitious Coyotes. It was not long after that, that the Wolves regained their composure and began to pick up where they had begun. Trenton Terrell and Kaleb Rittenhouse showed knowledge and skill running the ball as they scored seven touchdowns combined. The Wolves have four returning seniors, Trenton Terrell, Kaleb Rittenhouse, Logan Furnish and Evan Schiel; three returning juniors, Kevin Lengel, Blake Cure and Lucas Langendoerfer; three returning sophomores, R.J. Kleweno, Scott Cure and Lucas Devlin and three new players added to the team; Gabe Ramsier, Todd Shively and Creighton Farness. The coaching staff this year consists of Tim Gribben, Tim Krause, Chris Soehner and Brad Wingfield. The Wolves are confident this year and look forward to a good season.

Idalia Volleyball

The lady Wolves of Idalia started their season with a tournament in Burlington on Aug. 28. They were happy to find out that the two weeks of intense practice had truly paid off as they won all three scrimmages of the tournament "unofficially" beating Burlington, Lamar, and Stratton. The girls showed a great deal of promise and skill throughout the duration of their matches. The Wolves are led by seniors, Ashley Chamberlain and Krista Soehner. These two tremendous seniors are joined by juniors, Kaitlin Soehner and Andrea Knodel; Sophomores Katri Rittenhouse and Sarah Krause and freshmen, Mallory Rose, Michelle Schaffer and Nichole Weyerman. With only nine members on the team, every person makes a large impact on the outcome of the season. Yet with four returning starters, the fighting Wolfettes will not be without experience. The Wolves are coached by newbies Kylie Burr and Crystal Richards.

Willing Workers Club

Gwen Shaffer hosted Willing Workers at her home in Wray last Thursday, Sept. 9. They enjoyed lunch at the Sandhiller Restaurant and then played Pinochle in the afternoon at her home with eight members attending. She served dessert and coffee afterwards.

Birthday

Riley Shaffer celebrated his 10th birthday over the weekend with some of his friends staying and on Saturday night they all enjoyed a barbecue supper. Hosting the supper were his parents Theron and Kelly, his brother Landon and his sisters Reagan and Breann, helping to celebrate were Will Helling, Brenden Dutton, Ashton Weyerman and Riley's grandparents Harold and Audrey Eisenbart of Stratton. They all enjoyed ice cream afterwards. Then on Riley's actual birthday Sept. 13 he was the VIP of the day on KNAB Radio.

Family Community Education Club

The September 16 meeting of the Idalia Bicentennial Family Community Education was called to order by Rosemary Shanks, president, ten members answered roll call with an interesting fact about your ancestors. A new member, Nicole Mast was welcomed. Sheryl Wudtke presented a program on genealogy from information provided by Lucille Rossbach.

There will be a blood Oct. 1 from 2-6 p.m. at the Idalia High School. Call Sheryl Wudtke to sign up. Walk-ins are welcome.

The District 1 meeting will be in Akron, Sept. 27, starting at 9:30 a.m. A silent auction basket with an apple theme will be sent. Any contributions will be welcome. If you would like to attend, call Joyce or Sheryl Wudtke.

FFA Yuma County Fair

Correction

A correction needs to be made on one of the names of those that attended the September meeting of the Nifty Red Hatters of Haigler at the Prairie Belle Inn Bed and Breakfast on the Tecker Ranch. That name should be Jean Moore instead of Jean Stewart. Your Haigler correspondent wishes to apologize for this error.

New pastor

The congregation of the Haigler United Methodist church is pleased to have Anne Gatobu from Chappell, Neb., serving as the new pastor. Anne has filled in on many occasions for some previous church services and was one of the organizers for the recent mission trip to Kenya. Five members of the Haigler Church made that trip with the mission group. Rev. Dr. Njenga Kariuki, the former pastor, is now serving as an associate pastor at a Methodist church in Longmont, Colo. Sunday school has started again and all are welcome to join in the learning and fun. Regular church services begin at 9 a.m., followed by coffee/social time, and Sunday school beginning at approxi-

Rainbow Unit

The oldest Home Extension Club in Dundy County began its 64th year when Rainbow Family Community Education Club met at the home of Lillian Mahon on Sept. 16. Although membership is smaller than it was in 1930, the members appreciate the value of extension work for family and community.

Virginia Harford called the meeting to order with the reading of the Collect. Melba Harford gave a report. Roll call was answered by telling things that cause stress in children. A few moments were spent in memory of Irene Day, who died in August.

Lillian, as health leader, read an article concerning diet and exercise. Eat foods high in fiber, mustard instead of mayonnaise, yogurt instead of ice cream, chicken instead of beef. "We don't forget that this is corn and beef country!". Reading leaders, Melba, read a paper, "If I Had My Life To Live Over, I'd Pick More Daisies."

Dues are due on Oct. 1. Virginia presented the lesson "It's Tough Being A Kid." It is important to recognize signs of stress in youth, work with teaches, coaches, and doctors to recognize problems. The lively discussion continued while Lillian served a delicious lunch. Melba will be hostess in October.

Richard and Laura Pearl Wall spent the weekend with Merry Lu and Bob Simmons and attended the Beecher Island festivities. Other guests were Randy, Laurie, Laura and
