Quintet will perform at the Atwood school

Ensemble Amarcord, a men's capella quintet, will perform at the Atwood High School auditorium on Sunday, Nov. 14 at 3 p.m., presented by Western Plains Arts Association. All five members of Amarcord trained in the prestigious St. Thomas Boys Choir in Leipzig, Germany. Blending comedy and vocal skills, their program will include a broad range of delightful repertoire. The ensemble consistently receives impressive reviews by critics from all over the world. Admission will be by Western Plains Arts Association or at the door. This program is presented in part by the Kansas Arts Commission, a state agency and National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

I would like to congratulate Ray Lee on an exciting commissioner's race and thanks to all who voted. I want to especially thank those individuals who supported me with encouragement, compassion and kind words. I owe a big thanks to my wife Deb. I still consider myself a winner for living in such a great community.

Sincerely,
Dale Patton
