Thank You

Thank you to all those who have had time to ask, send cards or be there for us. Especially our kids who have went out of their way and out of their pockets, thank you. We love you-Myra and Mark, Bonnie and Steve, Les and

Eric, Pam and Jim. The phone calls, a special envelope from a special person who remains unknown. To all the clinic and hospital staff - Morita for her visits and prayers. To a special "huggy" person. It is so nice to be home after eight weeks in Denver with an operation due yet in July. Thank you to our housekeeping Fairy. Thanks to everyone in this special town we live in. Most of all we make a special thanks to the Lord for watching over us. Now, then and always. Bill and Phyllis

The family of Aerial Andrist would like to thank Paul Rainbolt and staff, also Gordon Ross, John Guthmiller and Troy Porter, for the plaque and dedication ceremony to honor Aerial, Kathy and Arlene. Thank you, the Andrist families

The family of Lucille Rohlf's would like to thank her friends and family for their expressions of kindness and sympathy in our loss. Thanks also to Cheyenne County Hospital doctors and staff, the Cheyenne County Home Health people, and the Good Samaritan Village staff for the loving care over the last few years.

Idalia News

St. John UCC News

Those attending this past Sunday enjoyed a Hymn Sing. Bill Carpenter sang The Long Black Train. Pastor Patten was in Grand Junction at the Annual Meeting. Next Sunday the committee from Denver will be here for a potluck and instructions about the pastoral search. Remember church is at 10 a.m. and there is no Sunday School. Everyone is invited to the Father's Day breakfast hosted by the youth fellowship on June 19 at 9 a.m.

Reunion guests

Darlene Pichette of Iona, WA arrived Thursday to visit and help her mother Elsie Shanks. She attended the Idalia School Reunion banquet and dance. She left for Denver early Thursday to fly home.

Tim Carpenter was unable to attend the reunion. He is teaching at CU this summer and had to grade papers!

Idalia/Armel Reunion

Close to three hundred and fifty people attended the Idalia/Armel Reunion on Saturday, June 11. Every five years former Idalia and Armel graduates, students, faculty, administration and staff gather at the Idalia School. Individual classes met in the old gym and visited throughout the afternoon. Master of ceremonies Freeman Morris welcomed everyone and introduced the 2005 and 2010 reunion committees. Mr. Morris then thanked everyone involved in the setup, cleanup and support of this event. The class of 1955 received special recognition for their 50-year reunion, as did a group of some very special "older and wiser" folks. A steak supper was served and enjoyed while listening to Highway 385. After supper everyone danced outside on the tennis court to the music of Aces and Eights. The next reunion will be the second Saturday in June 2010.

Alumni attending the reunion included graduates and students from the following decades:

Birth

Spencer Jerome Perila was born on June 6, 2005, to Randy and Laurie (Simmons) Perila of Westminster, Colorado/He weighed 9 lbs 9 ozs, and was 21 and 1/2" long. His grandparents are Robert and Merry Lu Simmons of Wray, Colo., and Wallace and Joyce Perila of Bloomington, Minnesota. Spencer Jerome has two sisters, Laura Ashley and Madison Paige.

Charlie and Myrna Mulligan returned home on Sunday, June 12, 2005, following a week's visit in the home of their son and family, Skip, Melissa, Allen and Chaise, in Saginaw, Michigan. They were very happy to make the acquaintance of their new little grandson, Chaz, and to assist in caring for him and his older sister, Alayna, during the time that their parents were working. Other visitors in the Mulligan home during their stay there were Melissa's parents, Randy and Patty Smith. Following Charlie and Myrna's return trip home, they were happy to share pictures with Chaz and Alayna's great-grandparents, LaVoine and Opal Collicott, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simmons and their granddaughter, Amber Simmons, of Loveland, Colorado; Quentin Simmons, and Dusty Wall were Sunday afternoon guests in the Richard Wall home. The Simmons brought pictures of their new grandson, Spencer Jerome Perila.

Birthdays celebrated

June birthdays of Eunice Haskell and Sheryl Stute were celebrated at the Golden Inn on Tuesday during the noon meal. Eunice had her birthday on Monday, June 6, and her daughter, Sheryl Stute of Sidney, Neb., was on Tuesday, June 7. Sheryl baked her mother's favorite cake, a red chocolate devil's food with white frosting, and furnished ice cream to go with the Noon meal, which was enjoyed by all present.

Deann Hunt and daughter, Megan, spent last week with her parents, Wayne and Linda Mahon, and other relatives. On Sunday, June 5, they attended the fourth birthday party for Darian Mahon at the park in Yuma. Also attending were her dad, Glenn Mahon; her great-grandma, Lillian Mahon; her mother, Karisa, and other relatives. It was a fun day for all. Deann and Megan returned to their home in Junction City, Kans., on Monday, June 6.

Raymond and Floy Ruggles left June 3, for Lincoln, Neb., to attend a camp meeting. They returned home on Sunday, June 12. During that time they were guests of Floy's niece, Sherri Gregory. They were thankful for the rain here while they were gone.

On Wednesday evening, June 8, Stanley and LaNeta Carlock attended the 55 birthday celebration of his brother, Marv, in Laird, Colorado. Marv and his wife, Mary Ann hosted a cookout supper for the occasion. Others present were Marv's sister and husband, Sandy and Jr. Magley of Bird City, Kans., neighbor Nettie Sheldon of Laird; and Bailey Carlock (the family dog). Young neighbor, Jessie, joined the group later for a piece of ice cream cake.
