Thank You

As the family is blessed for having Hes in their lives, they are also grateful for the many friends and relatives who also shared in her life. A funeral service was held at the United Methodist Church in St. Francis on July 20 with the Pastor Morita Truman officiating. Casket bearers were grandsons Jeff Myers, Kevin Myers and great-grandsons Tucker, Landon, Shane and Ethan Stover. Interment was held at the St. Francis Cemetery. Arrangements by Knodel Funeral Home.

We have lost someone very special and dear to us. It is at times like these that a family realizes the importance of relatives, friends and the community of St. Francis for sharing our grief with your prayers, memorials, flowers, food, cards, calls and visits. A special thanks to Dr. Mary Beth Miller and all the hospital and clinic staff for their special care and concern. Paul Rainbolt and all of the staff at the Good Samaritan Village for making Hes's last days comfortable and for their kindness to the family members. Pastor Morita Truman for capturing the true spirit of who Hester Irene really was when only knowing her for a short time and being able to inspire us as if you knew her for a lifetime. Knodel Funeral Home for their wonderful services. A very special thank you to Jody, Anita and Marvin Miller, Elaine and John Kite for the many visits and caring for Hes in her special time of need. We know that at times when we were unable to be there Hes had some special friends that stopped by over the past couple weeks to console and sit with her.

We want to thank each of you for your time and concern. Our sincere gratitude and heartfelt thanks. The Myers family

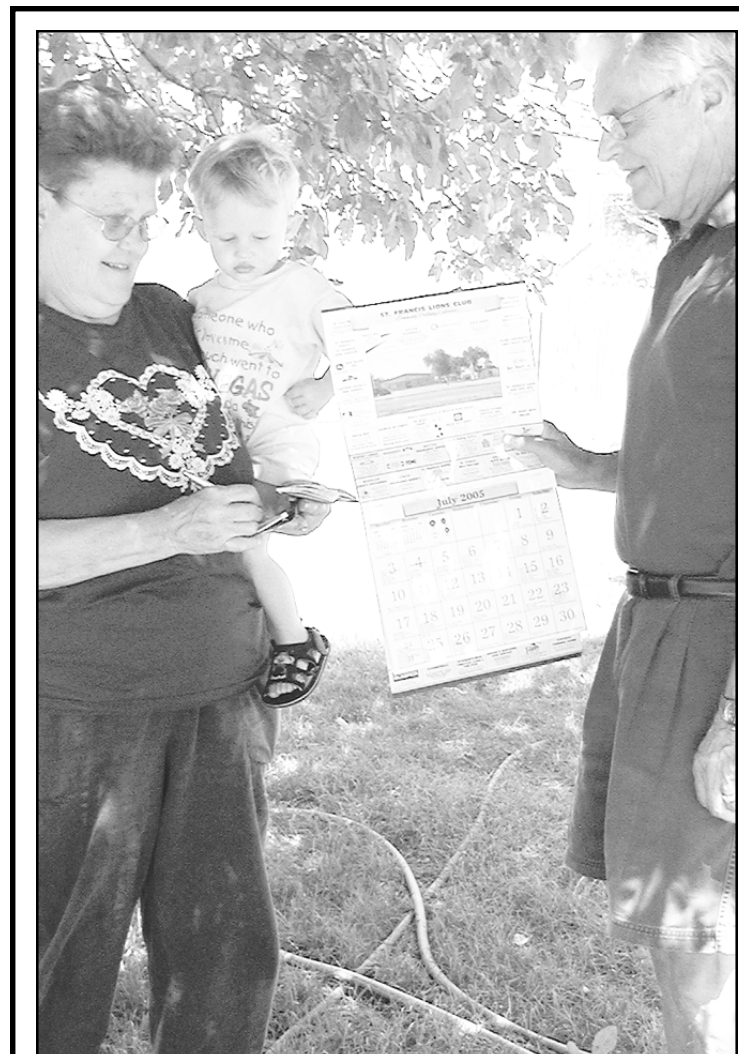

The Class of 2007 would like to thank all families who either donated items or money for their successful garage sale. Also a big thanks for all who supported us and to the city for the use of the park.

I want to thank all who helped me with things I'd need and financially after the fire in my house. And also to the person or persons who gave to me anonymously. And the CYO group who helped move all my boxes to storage. All is greatly appreciated. ErvaGene DeAragon

The Cheyenne County Hospital would like to thank the family of Cecil Terry for their generous memorial contribution to the hospital. Your continued support is greatly appreciated.

Mere words cannot begin to express my gratitude for the loving acts of kindness shown to me after the passing of my Mom and following my surgery. The cards, gifts, flowers, plants, phone calls and visits have been appreciated so much. To my employees, customers, family and friends. Thank you, you're the greatest. To my kids, Nikki, Dale, David and Dana, Thank you for the calls, the errands, the worry and the "nagging", I love you all; just remember, I'm still the Mom. To Brad, Leon and Darlene, thank you for being there during my surgery and taking care of me after I got home. I know I'm not a good patient but there's only two weeks to go! St. Francis truly is a special community. Pat Rose

Lions Club selling annual calendars

The St. Francis Lions Club is once again selling Community Calendars. The calendar lists the birthdays, anniversaries and in-memory names in the calendar squares. Active military people will be listed free.

The St. Francis Lions Club members have been calling on people, going door-to-door. There are many people who list their entire families on the calendars and others who prefer to just purchase the calendar. Whatever, the project, which is a service to the community as well as a fund raiser for the club, allows people to be listed for very little. "We have contacted a lot of people but we know there are probably some that we have unintentionally missed," Elmer Keller, Lions member, said.

People have until Aug. 15 to get on the calendar. If someone has not been contacted, call any Lions member or call Elmer Keller, 785-332-2950, Rueben Schultz, 785-332-2939 or Norman Morrow, 785-332-3424.

The calendars will be delivered before Jan. 1.

Agency looking for farmers to serve

The Cheyenne County Farm Service Agency is seeking farmers to serve as candidates for the Local County Committee elections to be held this fall. Nomination forms must be postmarked or received by close of business in county offices by Aug. 1.

"Farmers can nominate themselves or any other producer in the local administration area to run for a seat on the committee, said the Farm Service Agency's county executive director. The nomination period began June 15.

Farm Service Agency administers federal agricultural production, farm loan, conservation and emergency programs in the county. Locally elected committees of farmers or landowners oversee county office operations.

The locally elected committee shoulders primary responsibility for making national farm programs fit the needs and situations faced by local farmers and brings local expertise and knowledge to Farm Service Agency's daily delivery of programs and services.

"Eligible voters may circulate or sign nomination petitions for as many candidates as they choose, including themselves," Angie Berens, county executive director said. "Also, organizations representing minorities and women farmers or ranchers may nominate candidates."

Nomination forms are available at the Farm Service Agency office and can be found online at http://www.fsa.usda.gov/pas/publications/electionsFSA0669A\_050517V01.pdf.

Minority and female farmers are encouraged to take part in the nomination process. For more information contact the staff of the county Farm Service Agency office at (785) 332-2183 or visit the election Web site.
