It's fair time

The county fair started Wednesday; ends Saturday

By Karen Krien

The Cheyenne County Fair has begun. The lights and sounds of the carnival are exciting as the young children and their parents make their way to the fairgrounds. Grandstand activities are every night throughout the fair, Wednesday through Satur-

The 4-H'ers, who have spent months preparing their livestock and other projects, will know the outcome of their labors and most will have at least one (they can only have two) at the Premium Sale which is slated to start at 5:45 p.m. on Friday.

"The fair board and many volunteers have been working days and evenings getting the equipment, buildings and arena ready for the fair activities," said Dick Bursch, presi-

"As usual, we are expecting one of the best fairs in the area with some of the best exhibits, best entertainment and the best parade."

The home-owned carnival is open every evening. (See related article.)

Saturday fair events planned

By Karen Krien

Saturday will mark the beginning of a day packed full of activities and the end of the Cheyenne County

The day will start with the parade at 10 a.m. beginning at the east end of St. Francis' Main Street.

Mud volleyball action begins at noon. Tina and Kirby Elliott are in charge of the games. They reported that the teams are filling fast and they are expecting 16 teams this year, however, as of Tuesday, there were only 15 teams. Each year there is more and more interest in playing and teams need to get their registration fees paid in advance to guarantee they have a place on the roster.

The mud volleyball games are held at the two courts just west of the baseball diamond at the fairgrounds. Team members are encouraged to show up at the courts directly after the parade. Mrs. Elliott advises that anyone playing should plan to wear protective coverings on their feet as the sandburs are terrible.

The volleyball tournament is co-

Congressman changes dates of visit to county

Congressman Jerry Moran will be visiting four northwestern Kansas counties on Monday during his ninth annual Big First Listening Tour. This is a change from the original schedule of Aug. 19. in each of 69 counties of the First Congressional District and he will be in Goodland, Bird City, Atwood and Colby.

Congressman Moran will be at the Bird City City Hall from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. He will head on down the road to Rawlins County where he will meet with people from 4 to 5 p.m. at the Country Corner Bed and Breakfast, South Highway 25.

Earlier in the day, he will stop at the High Plains Museum, 1717 Cherry in Goodland from 11:45 to 12:45 p.m. mountain daylight time. Town hall meetings will be held Later that afternoon, he will be available to visit with residents from 5:30 to 5:30 p.m. at the Prairie Museum of Art and History, 1905 S. Franklin, Colby.

During the tour, the congressman will travel more than 5,000 miles, meeting with Kansans to discuss their thoughts and concerns and answer their questions about federal issues.
