Richard Legge observed his No-

central time on Oct. 11. The leaders were Frank and Gloria from Casper, Wyo., and Jerry and Robin from McCook. Gloria filled everyone in on the rules and additional information they needed to know.

Lunch was eaten in Salina and then they were back on the road to Lamberts, only a few miles north of Branson, where they arrived at 7:30 p.m. and ate their evening meal, a lovely big meal served in large skillets. The bus arrived in Branson about 9:30 and was met by Shorty and Elizabeth, who took over for the next three days as the tour guides. Everything was planned to perfection.

Wednesday, Oct. 12, they left the motel at 8:55 a.m. for a fun-filled day. They headed over to 76 Music Lane, where they were now on the Shepherd of The Hills Express. At 9:30 they went to the program of Mr. Yokov Smerinoff, a Russian, at the Peace Arrow Theaters. It was a fantastic performance and he truly loves America, where he has had many opportunities. They went to the Mel Tillis' home, which had been sold to a church. It was beautiful from the outside. There were lots of jokes, music, dancing and beautiful costumes. The group learned to say, "ya'll; ya'all come back, now, ya hear; yep, nope and bet you never thought of it that way, but you will now" and also learned what love is and that laughter is the best medicine.

Wednesday night they attended the Presley Country Jubilee. There were 14 members in a group what wore beautiful red and yellow suits and performed patriotic numbers. A young lady, Bethany Borg, was a violinist and did a beautiful number. The Presley family was very talented. Sara Presley, a 15-year-old young lady, played the fiddle, and is well on the way to fame.

Friday they had a continental breakfast at the Duttens Motel. It was the place they stayed while in Branson and it was very nice. They were back on the bus at 9 a.m. and headed for the Hughes Brothers show. The whole family was involved. There were five brothers, their wives and children performing. The group was informed the children, ages 12 years down to 18 months, are all home schooled. The school age children performed like professionals (they are)! Even little 2, 3 and 4year-olds got in the act. One of the brothers brought out the fact when there is love at home, everyone wins. program. brought out the fact the most important part of working together is that they are all working for God. At the close of this performance, the mother and father came on stage and said, "We are living proof that love keeps us together." Friday afternoon they attended the Roy Rogers/Dale Evans Theater. The production is put together by their son, Dusty, and the High Riders. This is a lovely tribute to Roy and Dale. They sang many of the songs that Rov and Dale made popular. Roy was the "Great American Cowboy" and made Western music and culture what it is today. Roy was the childhood hero of Mrs. Keating so she especially enjoyed the performance. They have a nice museum with Trigger, Trigger, Jr.; and Dale's horse, Buttermilk, on display, as well as other keepsake items. Dusty said his adopted father, Roy Rogers, was always a gentleman and his dad would say you should always open the door for a lady. He also said chivalry is not dead, it's just sick right now, but it may get better. Dusty gave a lovely tribute to his parents at the close of the walk in Dad's shadow; I just want to closed with Happy Trails To you..
