

Annual Wheeler Thanksgiving dinner

MAYOR FRED MAGLEY, left, made introductions at the annual Wheeler Thanksgiving dinner held Friday at Captain Hook's Fine Dining in Wheeler.

Neva and Coy DeGood (with the buffalo cap) talked to Bill Leach during the dinner. Right, Rosemary Powell read a poem about the Model A and Model T Ford. Staff photos by Karen Krien

Annual event draws a crowd

The annual Wheeler Thanksgiving dinner, sponsored by Captain Hook's Fine Dining, was held Friday evening at the restaurant. The meeting starts with a dinner of turkey and dressing and roast beef with all the trimmings followed by pumpkin pie. As people enjoyed the meal, there was conversations of Wheeler in its earlier days. A Wheeler History Book has been compiled by Marsha Magley and Helene Landenberger. Rose Mary Bierig was recognized as having been born in the city of Wheeler. Following a short program, Mayor Magley wished everyone a happy Thanksgiving. The Thanksgiving dinner is held each year on the Friday before Thanksgiving.

The Country Advocate is the 900-pound Gorilla of Northwest Kansas. The Advocate, with its circulation now 18,200 strong, is delivered to homes from Oberlin to Cheyenne Wells and Burlington out in Colorado, and from St. Francis down to rural Hoxie and Oakley. The Advocate goes nearly everywhere in this area, sells just about everything. Face it, nobody argues with a 900-pound Gorilla.

But this Gorilla is a nice guy. He's on your team. You'll find him right here in your newspaper every week, bringing you want ads, sale ads, merchandise ads of all kinds. The Gorilla can help you. He'll move your old refrigerator, get rid of the wreck out back, or find a new home for your kittens. He's that kind of guy.

The Advocate has the largest circulation of any shopper-type section around, and it's nearly all delivered to homes, by newspaper carrier or U.S. Mail.

Take a look. That's him, peaking out from between the pages of your newspaper. The 900-pound Gorilla, ready to go to work for you. Call today for an introduction.
