Indians lose to Wildcats

By Betty Jean Winston

After losing to Wallace County 67-54 on Tuesday night, Feb. 6, the Indians moved into the final two weeks of the regular season with a 12-4 record.

"Wallace County is another top ranked team," said Coach Ward Cassidy.

Mac Frewen and Ted Crabtree led the scoring against the Wallace County Wildcats with 17 and 11 points respectively.

The Indians were 34.6 percent from the field and 60.9 percent from the free-throw line. Two Indians were 100 percent from the three-point shot area with M. Frewen being 2-of-2 and Adam Peter 1-of-1.

Having the best percentage from the two-point area was Frewen with 75 percent. Everyone else was below 50 percent. At the line Peter was 100 percent with 2-of-2 and Frewen was next with 5-of-6 for 83.3 percent.

"Mac Frewen scored a season high 17 points," Coach Cassidy said.

"We had too many missed opportunities and just couldn't get the lead.

"We wanted to shoot more free throws than them and we were 14-23 but Wallace made 17-of-19."

During the fourth quarter, the Wildcats had their best scoring output. They went into the final quarter with a four-point advantage and finished the game leading by 13 points.

"Late foul trouble let them get away with a 13-point win."

Under the basket, the Indians collected 26 free throws with 12 of
