Sainty boys place second; girls, third

By Betty Jean Winston

The Goodland 9-10 track meet held on Monday, April 10, gave a number of the younger Indian tracksters an opportunity to shine.

Freshman and sophomore athletes from nine school, including 4A schools competed with the St. Francis boys placing second and the girls third.

In the girls division, Elizabeth Gienger placed first in the 400-meter dash, Sidnee Crabtree placed first in the javelin and the shot put, and Holly Keller placed first in the 100-meter high hurdles.

In the boys division, Ted Crabtree placed first in the javelin, the high jump- and the pole vault while Sam Sowers was first in the 110-meter high hurdles.

Ladies win first at Triplains Invitational

By Betty Jean Winston

The Lady Indians moved to the top of the ranks at Oakley on Tuesday, April 11, when they captured the crown at the Triplains Invitational with 82 points.

First place finishes were recorded in the 400-meter dash (Lauren Ross), 800-meter run (McKenzie Grace), long jump (Talisa Voorhies), shot put (Ally Reichert) and the 200-meter dash (Voorhies). The points earned in these events went a long way toward helping the team win the meet.

With a total of 66.25 points, the Indians placed third out of the 17 teams participating. Greeley County earned 78 points for first place and Quinter 68 points for second place.

First place winners were: Levi Weeden in discus, Mac Frewen in high jump, and Joel McAtee in the 200-meter dash.

The Saintly relay teams helped earn points for the Indians and Lady Indians but no individual team placed first.

Sainty fans need to mark Tuesday, April 25, on their calendar for the St. Francis Invitational.
