

Pet Day is held at ABC Preschool

Preschoolers enjoy pets

Each year, ABC Preschool holds a Pet Show. This year, it was so cold that the show was held in the foyer of the school. Some might have said it was kind of a 'zoo.' Left, Judy Baxter talks to her son Jessie. Above, Kody Krien holds son's KC's dog while he looks at Dravin Houtman's frog. There were two frogs and many dogs but, fortunately, there were no cats.

Countdown
 By Iris Johansen

Don't kill her. She's no good to us dead." These words haunt Jane MacGuire after a shocking attack shatters her world in an instant.

Who is after her - and what do they want so badly they'll kill anyone in their way? That's what Jane is determined to find out, without the help of the police, the FBI, or her adoptive parents, forensic sculptor Eve Duncan and her husband, Joe Quinn, of the Atlanta PD - because whoever is after her won't hesitate to hurt those she loves the most. Now Jane will go on the run with the only man who may be more dangerous than those who are pursuing her. A smuggler, a con man, and who knew what else, Mark Trevor had his own mysterious reasons for wanting to keep Jane safe and out of the hands of a killer obsessed with a two-thousand-year-old mystery that could rock the modern-day world.

The Countdown has already begun, and it's approaching zero faster than anyone things.

My Mother is diligent on doing her best with a great deal of zest.

Determination she does have~
 Sees the sunny side and loves to laugh.

I love her courage.

Aletha keeps on keeping on,
 Even beautification with her lawn.

Helping others she has tried

Much happiness she has supplied.

On this Mother's Day,

I want to send my admiration and love to you,
 For praising God like you do.
