

Robert Lee Schlittenhardt
March 10, 1940 - May 22, 2006
Bob was born March 10, 1940, in St. Francis, Kan., to Dave and Lydia (Wolff) Schlittenhardt.

Schlittenhardt

He graduated from St. Francis High School with the class of 1958. Upon graduating he moved to Hays. While living and going to school in Hays he met and married the mother of his children. Bob left Hays and moved to Oklahoma City to go to work for his brother, Ervin, in the grocery business as a meat cutter. After his brother's death, he stayed in Oklahoma City as a professional meat cutter for the next several years.

He moved back to St. Francis after the death of his mother to be closer to his dad and work for Tony Howard at Supers as a meat cutter. Bob decided to move to Dallas, Texas, where he worked as a meat cutter in a large grocery store. When the arthritis became so bad, he had to leave his profession and went to work for a large Super Wal-Mart in Dallas until he retired.

Bob decided to move back to Oklahoma after retirement to be near his children. he lived in Chickasha, Okla., until his death on May 22.

Bob loved his children and was always there for them when needed. He was a person who was willing to help people when they were in need. He was always happy and smiling and he enjoyed his life especially after retirement.

Bob preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Ervin; and a sister, Doris.

Survivors include four sons: Jeff and wife, Cindy of Oklahoma City, twins, John, and wife, Lauri of Oklahoma City and David and wife, Heidi of Chickasha. Michael and wife, Samantha of Oklahoma City; one daughter, Kayla McNeill of Oklahoma City; one sister, Irene Andrist of St. Francis; three brothers, Edwin, and wife, Lavon; Danny and wife, Marti of St. Francis; Elroy and wife, Linda of Trinity, Texas; six grandchildren, Sarah and Ross Schlittenhardt of Oklahoma City, Sydney Schlittenhardt of Oklahoma City; Brittany McGunnegil of Winchester, Ind., Timothy Schlittenhardt of Chickasha, Zachary Schlittenhardt of Oklahoma City; one great-grandchild, Clinton McGunnegil of Winchester; four step grandchildren, Trystyn, Ashlee, Tanya and Christopher; many, many nieces, nephews and friends.

A memorial service was held in Chickasha on May 25 with burial in St. Francis at a later date.

God looked around
His garden
And he found an empty place.
He looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw that the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God
Called you home. 23*

Doris J. Cook

June 14, 1926 - June 1, 2006
Doris J. Cook, age 79, died Thursday, June 1, 2006, at the Abilene (Kan.) Memorial Hospital. She was born June 14, 1926, in Topeka, the daughter of Clad and Ruby Hoatson Marshall.

She attended the Topeka schools and graduated from Topeka High School in 1944. She was also a graduate of Kansas State University in 1948.

On Aug. 8, 1948, she was married to John Cook. All of their married life was spent farming north of Abilene. Doris was a substitute teach for United School District 435.

John preceded her in death on April 2, 1999. She was also preceded in death by one sister, Margery Snow.

Doris was a member of the First United Methodist Church, a member and former president of the United Methodist Women, and the First United Methodist Chancel Choir. She was a long-time community leader in 4-H and was a member of the Delta Delta Delta social sorority at Kansas State.

She is survived by one daughter, Margie Poling of St. Francis; one son, David Cook of Abilene; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were held Wednesday, June 7 from the First United Methodist Church with Rev. Jim Edwards officiating.

The family suggests memorial contributions in her memory be given to the First United Methodist Church. They may be left at or sent in care of the Danner Funeral Home P.O. Box 758, Abilene, KS, or the First United Methodist Church.

Mildred Mills Moberly

Aug. 25, 1918 - May 24, 2006
Mildred Moberly, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and friend, died on May 24, 2006, at the age of 87 in Olympia, Wash.

Mildred Fae Mills was born Aug. 25, 1918, in Edison, Neb., to Grace Stewart and Ray Mills. She was the third of four children. The family moved to St. Francis, Kan., where she graduated from high school.

On Jan. 17, 1938, Mildred married Louis T. Moberly in Hays. They had two children, Luise and Stan. They moved to Oberlin in 1947, where they owned and operated Moberly's Flower and Gift Shop for many years.

She was a member of the Methodist Church, P.E.O. and Library Guild. Mildred was a 50-year member of Oberlin Chapter 106, Order of the Eastern Star and was secretary for 23 years.

She moved to the Seattle area in 1987, to be closer to family. She loved good music, good books and a good cup of tea.

Mildred was preceded in death by her husband, her parents and brother, Ray.

She is survived by daughter Luise (Glenn) Howe, Layton, Utah; son, Stan (Linda) Moberly, Tumwater, Wash.; two sisters, Merna Cross, Fort Collins, Colo., and Lela Matthews, Holyoke, Colo.; former daughter-in-law, Jan Moberly, Seattle; granddaughter, Sally Howe, Gladstone, Ore.; grandsons, Curtis (Laura) Howe, Enumclaw, Wash.; Ted Howe, Papillion, Neb.; Michael (Rebecca) Moberly, Anchorage, Alaska; Matthew Moberly, Ann Arbor, Mich.; great-grandchildren, Amanda and Bailey Howe; Samuel and Margaret Howe.

An Eastern Star Memorial service will be held in Oberlin at a later date.

JOIN HANDS group found young and old working together on community projects. One of the projects was painting lines and handicap signs at the hospital and clinic parking lot. CJ Douthit, left, and Candice Wiese were sweeping before the painters arrived. There were 54 people working and 163 hours of volunteer time was totaled. Herald staff photo by Karen Krien

Memorial Day reunion held

On Memorial Sunday, May 28, the fourth Elizabeth (Weist) and Fred Miller reunion was held at the Cheyenne Manor, St. Francis.

Doris (Miller) Amsberry, granddaughter, served as hostess. At noon, a delicious potluck dinner was enjoyed by 22 guests. Of some interest was the "Perfection Salad," made by following Aunt Sarah's recipe of 1926.

Name tags were distributed by great-great-grandchildren: Gunner and Grant Locklin and Kyla and Karly Bandel.

Kyla Bandel led the group in singing, "I Was Born in Kansas," accompanied by her grandmother, Sandra Bandel. Gunner Locklin and Kyla entertained the group with musical numbers at the piano.

Jack and Sheree Locklin gave an interesting account of the speech given by Tom Brokaw at Florida State University commencement - emphasizing, "The Greatest Generation." This led into some special stories of that generation. Stories about serving as a paratrooper, military service, remembering V-mail and recalling what the men and women of that generation did for this country.

Those present from the Leonard Miller family were Doris (Miller) Amsberry and husband, Lee, of Bird City.

Those present from the Henry Miller family were Lucille (Miller) Price, and the Bandels, Tom and Sandra, Mike Bandel and Leigh Ann Faulkender, Matt and Mila Bandel, their daughters, Kyla and Karly, all of St. Francis; Robert and Marjorie (Walter) Miller of Lincoln, Neb.; Josephine (Miller) Locklin and her family from Milton, Fla.; Jack and Sheree Locklin, Bob and Rhonda Locklin and sons, Gunner and Grant, Lisa (Locklin) and Mike Ryan.

A gathering of these generations of Fred and Elizabeth Miller approved plans to meet again in two years, in year 2008.
