Thank You

Thank you to our friends and neighbors for the thoughtful words of care and concern during my brain tumor surgery June 6. Your many cards, phone calls, visits, flowers meals and prayers were extremely comforting to me. Special thanks to our Wesleyan Community Church family and to Pastor Dan Carson for his presence during surgery, the Tri-State Antique Auto Club family, my work family at the Goodland SRS office, our neighbors, Clarence and Madelaine Roberson who cared for our home while I was hospitalized and to my mother Maxine Brenner who is providing "A Mother's love and care" in my complete recovery. Each act of kindness can move a mountain. My window at the Boulder Community Hospital had that mountain and my neurosurgeons, specialists, nurses, therapists and husband moved that mountain so I could return home to heal. The brain tumor was benign but I have lost partial eyesight and hearing. We are all hopeful that with continued prayers, rehabilitation water therapy and frequent checkups in Boulder, I will heal and be able to return to work. Judy Carol Dankenbring

The family of Arlene Scoby want to thank Dr. Miller, Patrick and Nadja, the hospital staff and the Good Samaritan Village for the wonderful care for Arlene. Thank you for the words of comfort, flowers, memorials, food and beautiful cards, it meant a lot to us. Jerry Scoby and family; Brian Scoby and family; Dolores Wiley

We express our sincere appreciation to Dr. Mary Beth Miller and the entire Cheyenne County Hospital staff for the excellent care Nathan received while a patient at the hospital the past two months. We appreciate the love, concern and acts of kindness shown to Nathan by everyone who came into contact with us. Thanks to Pastor Glenn Isernhagen and Pastor Don Thorson for their pastoral care. We thank Cathy Loop and Sherri Hilt for assisting with the transportation by using the Good Samaritan Van to get Nathan to our home. We are certainly thankful that we live in such a caring community as St. Francis. Thankfully, Elmer and Dorothy Kellner
