Marriage ceremony held at United Methodist Church

Sharissa Stevens and Dustin Andrist of St. Francis were married on Saturday, April 8, at the United Methodist Church in St. Francis.

Pastor Morita Truman was the officiate of the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Thomas and Donna Stevens, and the groom is the son of Randy and Denise Andrist, both of St. Francis. Grandparents of the bride are Hurlbut and Lola Graves and the late Oscar and Esther Irene Stevens. Grandparents of the groom are Harold Cress and the late Corrine Cress and Ben Andrist and the late Ariel Andrist.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. She wore a dress by Maggie Sottero. The dress was a one-piece, A-line silhouette with pearl button over zipper back closure. The portrait neckline was accented by Alencon lace and fell asymmetrically from the bodice toward the border lace hem. The lace was embellished with Swarovski crystals, bugle beads and seed beads throughout the dress. The sheer back emphasized the exquisite lace. The gown was in satin with a delicate tulle-lace overlay. She carried a bouquet of pink roses filled with pink lilies and accented with silver glitter.

Her maid of honor was Megan Douthit of St. Francis. Bridesmaids were Darla Raile of Salina, Brooke Lohr of Goodland, Kelsey Andrist, sister of the groom, of Hays and Shawna Blanka, sister of the bride. Junior bridesmaids were Clarice Neitzel and Lakin Pettijohn.

Best man was Tim Neitzel of Fremont, Neb. Groomsmen were Jason Barnhart, Tadd Neitzel, Shawn Blanka, brother-in-law of the bride, and Matt Moberly, all of St. Francis. Junior groomsmen were Shakotah Blanka, nephew of the bride, and Jeremiah Neitzel.

Layne Pettijohn was the flower girl and Shadryon Blanka, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. Candle lighters were Krista Holliman, cousin of the bride, and Benjamin Neitzel. George Ford, organist, pianist and vocalist, along with Althea Lebow, vocalist, provided music.

Ushers were Jerry Stahlecker,

Obituaries

Mildred Louise Rogers

Oct. 14, 1912 - June 8, 2006

Mildred Louise Jacobs Rogers was born Oct. 14, 1912, at Alliance, Neb., and died June 8, 2006, at the Mountain Meadows Nursing home in Monte Vista, Colo., where she'd made her home the last 10 years. Her age was 93 years, seven months and 25 days. She was the daughter of Dorance (Dory) and Margaret M. Sturm Jacobs, and had one brother, Raymond, who died in a tragic accident in 1922.

Mildred grew up and attended school in the St. Francis, Kan., area, graduating from St. Francis High School in 1931. In May of 1931, she married Lloyd Delbert Rogers and they lived and raised their family in the Lawn Ridge community. Three sons were born to this union; Troy, Neil and Larry.

Mildred was a member of the Lawn Ridge Methodist Church and was active in the Lawn Ridge community. She enjoyed doing needlework and enjoyed her family and friends.

In the mid 1950s, Lloyd and Mildred moved to Fort Morgan, Colo. After moving to Fort Morgan, Mildred worked as a bookkeeper for Clatworthy Implement Company, for some time.

Lloyd died in 1966. One son, Larry, also preceded her in death in 1954.

Mildred continued to live in Fort Morgan until 1995, when, due to failing health, she moved to Monte Vista to be near her son, Troy and family.

Mildred is survived by her son, Troy Rogers and wife, Beulah, of Monte Vista; son, Neil Rogers and wife, Jacque, of Collins, Miss; five grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Graveside services were held Monday, June 12, in Fort Morgan and conducted by Herr-Joliffe Funeral Home of Fort Morgan with Rev. Harold Anderson of the Brush United Methodist Church officiating.

Interment was in the Fort Morgan Cemetery.

Lyle Edward Williams

Aug. 6, 1914 - June 12, 2006

Lyle Williams was born in Cheyenne County, Kan., on Aug. 6, 1914, the youngest of five children of Jess and Bertha Williams, and died on June 12, 2006. He was residing at the Cedardale Healthcare Facility in Wray, Colo., at the time of his death.

Lyle married Aletha L. Heselius on Sept. 5, 1937, and three children were born to this union, Elaine, Edd and Ron. In 1960, a fourth member was welcomed into their family, Cheryl Cade White.

He was a self-educated man and owned numerous businesses in and around St. Francis, doing mechanical work. He had a following and continued to do mechanical work for his "special" customers after his retirement.

Lyle was an avid sports fan and enjoyed football and baseball. For many years, he and Aletha could be found on the fishing banks at Trenton and Parks. Although Aletha didn't fish she was always there with him.

Lyle was preceded in death by his wife, Aletha; his parents, siblings, and an infant granddaughter, Tyra.

He is survived by his children: Elaine and Wes Moen of Cheyenne, Wyo., Edd and Linda Williams of Wray, Ron and Betty Williams of Bird City and Cheryl White; his grandchildren and great-grandchildren: Gary and Bobbie Swanlund and son, Cody of Cheyenne, Dawna and Brian Bridges and children, Brittney and Ryan of Aquilla, Texas, Tracy and Randy Hardin and daughter, Kadence and soon-to-be new arrival, of Colorado Springs. There are also many nieces and nephews and dear friends.

A funeral service was held June 15 at the Knodel Funeral Home in St. Francis with Reverend Morita Truman officiating.

Casket bearers were Carl Williams, Gene Williams, Lyle Williams, Randy Williams, Dan Siegfried, Pete Jensen.

Interment was in the St. Francis Cemetery.
