Eight teams compete for low score in golf tourney

By Betty Jean Winston

Riverside Recreation was the site of a Four-Lady Scramble golf tournament on Saturday. The day was very hot, one of a number of 100-plus days recently recorded in the area.

Eight teams, each composed of four ladies, made up the field of golfers, with several of the group from out of town.

In the championship flight, the Severin team from Akron placed first and the Nowak team from Sharon Springs came in second.

The Peckham team from Sidney, Neb., placed first in the first flight while the St. Francis team of Natalie Rogers, Judy Gienger, Marla Rice and Jolene Dodd placed second.

The following players were winner of pin prizes:

Longest drive in the fairway, number one: Natalie Rogers

Closest to the pin on chip shot, number five: Sharon Nowak

Closest to the pin on tee shot, number seven: Tammy Robben

Shortest drive in fairway, number eight: Tracy Peckham

Longest drive in fairway, number nine: Wanda Severin
