School bash is well attended

The Back-to-School Bash held Saturday at the high school in St. Francis drew over 160 kids from Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska. Pastor David Butler, who coordinated the event, said there were kids from nine different churches. "It was great to see churches working together to accomplish something as awesome as this is for our children," Pastor Butler said.

Tommy Toombs, comic and mime, entertained the kids as well as the 40 adults who were present. Mr. Toombs has ministered for Josh McDowell, Billy Graham, T.D. Jakes and has recently been on tour with Rebecca St. James.

"There were seven kids who made professions of faith during the event," Pastor Butler said.

"This could not have happened without all the generosity of the supporters and their heart for children."

Pastor Butler said there were some great door prizes given away because of supporter's donations.

"I felt like it was a tremendous success and something the kids will always remember," Pastor Butler said.

Correction

In the Sept. 7 issue of The Saint Francis Herald and Bird City Times article about the commissioner's meeting on Aug. 31, it stated that "Administrator Les Lacy said he had been working with Jannell Bowers, ambulance director, to collect as much information as possible before making any decisions or recommendations (for the hospital taking over the ambulance service)." What Mr. Lacy had said was he would continue or maintain working with Jannell (Bowers) as he studies the issue.

The Saint Francis Herald inadvertently had the wrong date for the Christina Holzwarth and Brian Foster wedding. Instead of getting married on Oct. 26, they are getting married on Oct. 28. The engagement photo and article are printed again in this issue.
